Congressional Leaders Back President

Ike May Air Berlin Issue In Radio-Television Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev are locked in a strange kind of contest—each trying to convince the other his side is united on the issue of Berlin's future.

With Secretary of State John Foster Dulles on the sidelines fighting cancer, Eisenhower moved into a more active foreign affairs role. In East Germany, Khrushchev was busy assembling his allies.

Officials said today Eisenhower may make a radio-television appeal for public understanding and support. They said the President does not yet think the situation warrants such a broadcast. But they foresaw it as a possible move if there is a further heightening tension.

Eisenhower's radio-TV adviser, actor-producer Robert Montgomery, was at the White House Friday and Thursday. Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty said this was coincidental and the President has no present plans for a broadcast.

But Eisenhower was taking other well-publicized steps.

He met for 90 minutes at the White House Friday with the four top Republican and Democratic leaders in Congress. He followed that up with a White House session with eight other key Republican and Democratic members of Congress.

A proclamation of complete bipartisan support came from the four top leaders—Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson and Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, both of Texas, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and House Republican Leader Charles Halleck of Indiana.

They all said they are four square behind Eisenhower's policy of standing firm against Soviet efforts to oust the Allies from Berlin while keeping flexibly disposed to negotiate a settlement.

In between meeting congressional leaders, Eisenhower paid a hospital visit to Dulles. The White House said he brought Duile up to date on his consultation.

Khrushchev, busy talking up peaceful coexistence at a trade fair in Leipzig, East Germany, let it be known Friday he will consult with his satellite leaders next week in East Berlin.

Khrushchev has proposed that Poland and Czechoslovakia attend a foreign ministers meeting along with the Big Four and both Germanies. Officials said this would probably be at the center of the East Berlin talks but that Khrushchev apparently was trying to show as much solidarity as he could to counter Eisenhower's efforts.

Superintendent Gives Annual Report

High School Plant Future, Finances Seen Problems

The foremost problem facing East Liverpool schools is a decision concerning the future operation of the high school plant, Supt. Ralph W. Betts said in his annual report summarizing progress made in 1958 and listing some future situations that must be solved.

The second problem — a perennial, pressing one — is the need for operating funds, Betts said.

IF THE SCHOOL system is to continue to provide adequate educational opportunities, school district residents, and specifically the Board of Education, must decide whether to completely renovate Central School as part of the high school plant, erect an addition to the main high school building, or consider relocating the entire plant," the superintendent said.

"The decision concerning this problem cannot be delayed much longer," he asserted.

The superintendent said if a decision is reached to retain Central "we must make up our minds to spend a considerable sum of money" for rehabilitation, explaining when the changes are completed the school still will be 65 to 70 years old.

If the board decides to continue to use the structure, the remodeling work should include:

LOWERING THE ceilings to reduce the cost of heating, installing new floors, construction of a new fireproof stairway, relighting and redesigning the present roof. A flat roof would reduce what now is a "tremendous" maintenance problem, Betts said.

The board spent $8,191.74—nearly one - third of its maintenance budget — last year on repairs to Central without any capital improvements, the report showed. The total spent for major repairs on various buildings was $20,675.

The work and the amounts spent were:

Repair to a section of the roof, $1,743.78; repair to the heating plant, $2,288.85; painting of plaster walls, $2,946; plastering, $1,012.85; plumbing, $76.53, and repair of steps leading to the clock tower, $123.73.

If the board decides a huge investment in the old plant is inadvisable, it then must decide whether to add an addition to the main high school to make up space lost by discontinuing Central or build an entirely new high school plant, Betts continued.

A PART OF the whole problem, he said, is that the high school laboratories, such as home economics, chemistry, physics, biology, shops and commercial, are becoming obsolete.

Financially, it would be unwise to renovate the laboratories until the basic problem of the high school plant has been solved,

Khrushchev Hints At 2 More Pacts

May Invite Poland, Czechoslovakia On Red Germany Treaty

LEIPZIG, East Germany (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has dropped a hint that he may invite Poland and Czechosiovakia to join the Soviet Union in signing a peace treaty with East Germany.

Blowing hot and cold, the ebullient Soviet leader let leak the suggestion that this may be his maneuver in his pressure campaign against the West.

The Soviets are demanding an all-German treaty that would, in effect, still leave two Germanys to counter Western proposals for reunification of the country.

Bouncing around exuding confidence since arriving here on Wednesday, Khrushchev has given the impression that he feels he is making headway in the war of nerves on Germany—and particularly Berlin.

Today he leaves for East Berlin with indications he may be about to set another diplomatic time-bomb.

East German Communist Premier Otto Grotewohl said Friday night that it was "very possible" Polish Communist Boss Wladyslaw Gomulka and Czech President and party boss Antonin Novotny would confer with Khrushchev in Berlin.

This morning, however, Grotewohl's press chief Kurt Blecha said he had no information to give.

Khrushchev is due to address a labor conference in Leipzig this afternoon and leave by train this evening for East Berlin.

There was speculation that Krushchev would remain in Berlin over the weekend, especially if Golmulk and Novotny show up.

Presumably, the four Communist nations will discuss going ahead with a separate peace treaty for East Germany should the West refuse to bow to terms laid down by the Kremlin for a pact covering all Germany.

West Berlin Mayor Raps Separate Treaty

BERLIN, Germany (AP)—West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt said today if the Russians sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany they will ruin chances of a German settlement.

Brandt, just back from a 30,000 mile world trip, commented at a news conference on a statement by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev that the Soviet Union will sign with East Germany alone if the West does not come to terms.

Convict Who Held Four Hostage Shot, Captured

TRENTON, Ga. (AP)—Alabama desperado William E. Smothers was shot down and captured today as he attempted to shoot it out with a Georgia sheriff.

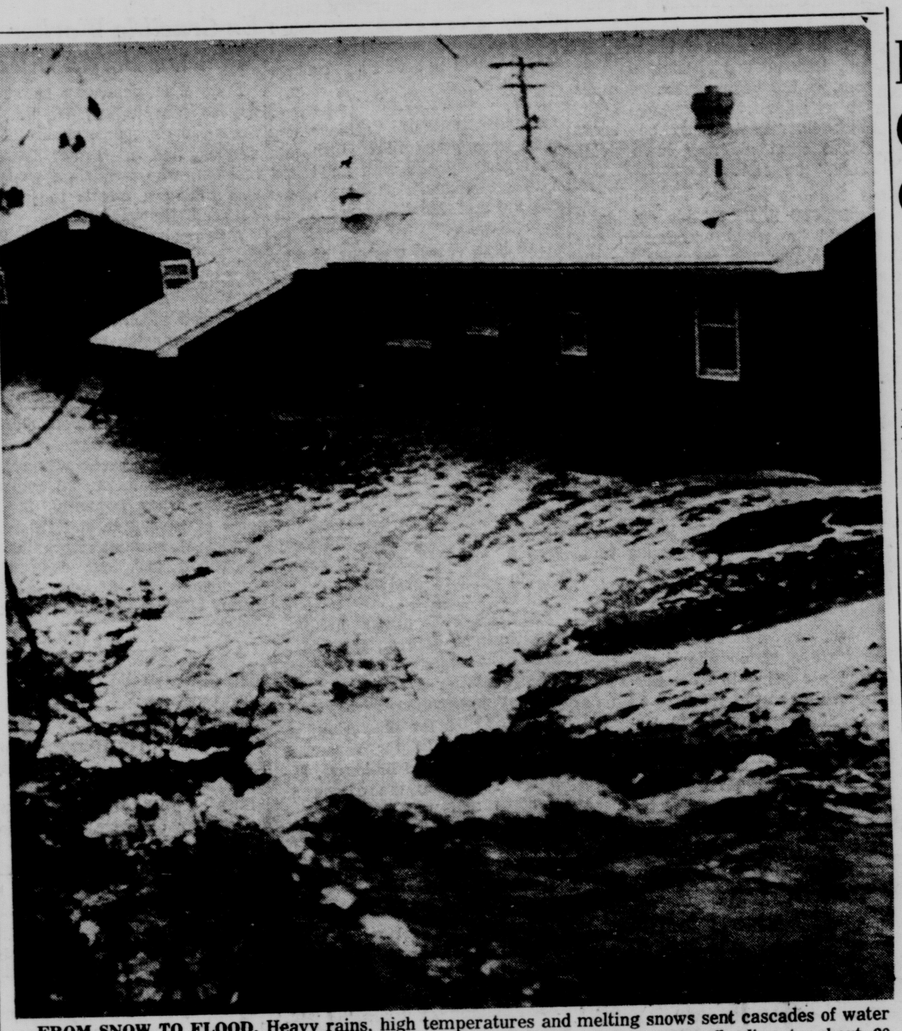

Police Chief H. H. Hutchings felled the crafty, cigar-smoking fugitive with a single shot from his .38-caliber pistol at Hooker Road and U.S. 11.

Lawmen from Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama combed this tri-state hill country for Smothers since he overpowered an Alabama patrolman Thursday and fled northward with four hostages.

He released his captives unharmed in north Alabama and later abandoned his getaway car near South Pittsburgh, Tenn., about 15 miles from where he was caught.

Snow Storm Whips Through Northeast; Easing In Midwest

FROM SNOW TO FLOOD. Heavy rains, high temperatures and melting snows sent cascades of water pouring into the Little River section of Westfield, Mass., Friday, causing major flooding to about 20 homes. The flooding began when several unused canals began overflowing their banks. A state of emergency was declared by Westfield Mayor Alice Burke who had highway crews busy today erecting sandbag dikes. High Winds Cause Drifts Of 20 Feet

Midcontinent Left In Strait-Jacket By Severe Pounding

By The Associated Press

A wild March snow storm tapered off and whipped through the Northeast today after leaving the upper Midwest strait - jacketed in the worst late winter weather pounding in a decade.

Numerous highways remained blocked in snow-choked sections of Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan as high winds whipped snowfalls of up to 22 inches into 20-foot drifts.

Deaths blamed on the storm numbered 33—12 in Iowa, 10 in Indiana, 6 in Wisconsin, 2 in Michigan, 2 in New York and 1 in Pennsylvania. The prespring dose of winter claimed its victims through snow shoveling heart attacks, traffic accidents and asphyxiation.

Winds gusting up to 50 miles an hour swept the heavy snow area as the storm moved northeastward into Canada.

Two 300-foot radio towers were downed by 45 m.p.h. winds in Bowling Green, Ohio, and a house trailer was overturned while being towed on a highway near Lancaster, Ohio.

Temperatures took a sharp skid east of the Mississippi River, and early morning readings were up to 20 degrees colder than a day earlier.

Snowfall tapered off to flurries in most of the Northeast, although locally heavy flurries deposited a fresh blanket near the lower Great Lakes.

In New England, the precipitation came as heavy rain in mild 50-degree temperatures. A rainfall of 2.17 inches soaked Portland, Maine, halting air traffic and harbor activities. The rain produced local flooding in western Massachusetts and Connecticut.

Highway maintenance officials in Iowa said some communities in the northeastern part of the state would be snowbound for several days in the wake of drifted 20-inch snowfalls. Intercity bus travel over the state was almost nonexistant after the worst snowstorm in 10 years.

Bell Receives Auditor Oath; Starts Monday

Kenneth Bell of Wellsville, who becomes Columbiana County's new auditor, was sworn in at noon Friday by Probate Judge Louis Tobin.

He will assume his duties officially Monday morning, succeeding I. J. Vorndran, who has been in the auditor's office for almost 33 years, the last 16 as auditor.

Vorndran, who stepped down at noon today, said he has no particular plans for the future.

After receiving his oath, Bell announced the appointment of James Cavanaugh of Lisbon R. D. as a deputy. Cavanaugh had worked for Vorndran but had resigned in January.

Bell, who resides on Highland Ave. in Wellsville, said his new office force was to visit the auditor's office this afternoon to get acquainted with the files.

Bell has named 12 new workers, retained 4 now in the auditor's office, and appointed 3 to work in the appraisal department for the new real estate appraisal.

He retained Mrs. Helen Cavanaugh as bookkeeper; Virginia Raney of East Liverpool, deputy in charge of disposition of funds; Wilber W. Cornelli of Lisbon, transfer clerk in the tex map department, and Wanda Wilson of Salem, clerk.

Appointees are George Konnerth of Salem, formerly with the Mullins Corp., chief deputy; Dan McKeever of East Liverpool, deputy auditor; Harry L. Gosney of Columbiana, sealer of weights and measures; Bernard Freeman of Leetonia, deputy in charge of personal property tax.

John Graham of Wellsville, deputy in charge of appraisal; Elmer R. Winters of East Liverpool, deputy, and Amelia Serago and Katherine Harrold of Lisbon, Linda Hawk of East Palestine, Pauline Berman and Janet Richardson of East Liverpool and Sally Russell of Salineville, clerks.

Mrs. Cavanaugh is the wife of James Cavanaugh.

Mrs. Dale Kodrich of Lisbon, Mrs. Virginia Iden of Kensington and Ila Mae Elsass of East Palestine were appointed for the appraisal department.

Mrs. Geneva Hult of Lisbon, one of the employes released, has been working in the auditor's office over 33 years.

Adjournment Week Away

West Virginia Legislature Seeks Tax Measure Accord

CHARLESTON (AP) — The 1959 Legislature's efforts to get together on a general revenue tax program are building up to a frenzied final week. The adjournment deadline for the 60-day session is a week from today.

First it was the House's turn to try. Then it was the Senate's. Now, with time running out, it is the House's move again.

The effort is to come up with tax measures the two chambers can agree upon as ways to raise more money for services financed out of general revenue. That means such things as education, mental hospitals, other institutions, and public assistance.

Last Monday the House took the plunge and passed a state income tax bill, estimated to amount to up to 14 million dollars in annual revenue. The Senate Finance Committee promptly killed the House-passed bill as soon as it reached the other end of the capitol.

Now the Senate has completed passage of four general revenue tax bills of its own, adding up to roughly six million a year. The last two, approved yesterday, would apply the gross sales tax at a rate of 1 per cent to professional income alone $5,000 and increase the tax on pari-mutuel betting at horse race tracks from 5 to 5¾ per cent.

The other two Senate bills, approved earlier in the week, would extend the gross sales surtax to contractors and impose a new tax on transfers of real estate ownership.

Only the transfer tax has yet come to a House vote. The House passed the bill, but first chopped it down from a three - million-dollar measure to one that would yield about $200,000 a year. The Senate refused yesterday to concur in the drastic revision and the disagreement now is going to a conference committee.

The House's income tax advocates may not be through, despite the quick death their bill met in Senate Finance. There are indications they now may try to amend one of the Senate - approved tax bills into a fairly widespread tax on incomes. The professional tax bill would be a likely choice for such an operation.

Yesterday a new tax bill entered the picture. House Finance sent to the floor a bill that would raise the rates on 12 of the 21 categories of business and industry that pay the gross sales tax.

The bill also would extend indefinitely a 1958 revenue act that is now scheduled to expire June 30, 1960. That act suspended a 5 per cent deduction that has been allowed under the gross sales tax law.

It is estimated the rate increases would add about $3,300,000 to the annual yield of the gross sales tax. Already bringing in about 50 million a year, the gross sales levy is the state's biggest source of general revenue.

A deadlock over the effective date for an increase in the gasoline tax was broken yesterday. The Senate, which had held out for July 1, accepted the House's April 1 version, re - passed the bill and sent it to Gov. Underwood.

The bill will raise the tax on gasoline and diesel fuel from six to seven cents a gallon and thereby add some 4½ million dollars to state revenue available for road construction.

The final Senate vote on the gasoline tax hike was 24-8.

The increase is earmarked for taking up federal funds available in the next fiscal year for construction on the Interstate Highway System.

A second major highway revenue measure is headed for a conference committee which will try to compromise a Senate - House disagreement. This is the bill to increase the cost of automobile and truck licenses.

The Senate first passed a version amounting to an additional $2,400,000 a year. Before passing the Senate bill, the House amended it upward to $3,200,000. The Senate refused to go along, and the House refused yesterday to back down from its position.

The House passed by an 81-3 vote yesterday a bill which would repeal the 1958 act that extended the soft drinks tax to a variety of products that are used in making soft drinks at home. The bill now goes to the Senate.

Steelworker Charged With Slaying Wife

Inquest Set Monday For Murder Of Mate In Domestic Quarrel

WEIRTON — A murder charge has been filed against Carl H. Cunningham of Weirton Heights in the murder of his wife, Viola Cunningham, 31, in their home on Church St.

The steelworker is in "satisfactory" condition at the Weirton General Hospital with self-inflicted shotgun wounds of the face and head.

Hancock County Prosecutor, Frank A. Pietranton said Cunningham, 40, admitted shooting his blonde wife and then trying to

Winter Slaps District With 'Dying' Blows

Winter has only two weeks to go but it was hanging on tenaciously and lashing out with heavy snow squalls, sub-freezing temperatures and biting winds today in what could be its last frigid fling before spring.

The high winds, with gusts estimated at 30 to 35 miles an hour velocity, prevented the snow from accumulating but highways were in hazardous condition with some drifting.

The blowing snow was so dense at times windshield wipers were useless, several motorists said, and this coupled with slick roads made driving dangerous Friday night. Ice added to the treacherous conditions in the Tri-State area.

The Lisbon State Highway Patrol said roads in Columbiana County are ice covered and slippery.

One city street crew was called out at 7 p. m. Friday to begin salting and ashing major streets, Supt. W. M. Laughlin said. The crew remained on duty all night and other crews resumed the work this morning.

One minor skidding accident was reported about midnight on Lincoln Ave., police said.

The mercury fell to 25 degrees as the overnight low and it will be slightly colder tonight, with a minimum of 17 to 22 forecast. Only scattered snow flurries were predicted for this afternoon and the winds were expected to diminish.

The weather Sunday will be sunny and warmer, according to the Ohio weatherman. Ohio Valley residents, completely tired of one of the worst winters in over 10 years, are looking ahead to March 21—that's when spring is due.

Macmillan Hopes Dulles Joins Talks

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan said today he expects his Washington talks to last three or four days.

"I earnestly hope and pray that Secretary of State Dulles will be well enough to take part," he added.

2 Teenagers Bound Over In Check Case

Alert Market Clerk Credited For Arrest; Juvenile Also Held

Two Steubenville teenagers were bound over to the Columbiana County Grand Jury today under $1,000 bonds in a check forgery case in which a 17 - year - old companion, also from Steubenville, was used as a "front."

Their slick scheme to cash a $50 check failed Thursday when alert supermarket clerks checked the bank to question the account.

Frank J. Ferraro, 18, and Christopher Karamanolis, 19, pleaded guilty when arraigned before Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw on charges of forging a $50 check on the Potters Bank & Trust Co.

Capt. R. H. Pyle said the pair are wanted by Steubenville officers for passing a $115 check there with the same scheme. Ferraro is out on a $4,000 bond for cashing stolen U.S. Savings Bonds and Karamanolis has a record of petty offenses, the officer added.

The 17 - year - old, on probation in Jefferson County, will be given a hearing before Chris Pusey, juvenile officer, and then probably will be turned back to Steubenville authorities, Capt. Pyle said.

Capt. Pyle said the 17 - year-old boy entered the bank just before noon Thursday and opened a checking account under the name of "Pete Pobega." He deposited $10 in the account and received a checkbook.

The boy then returned to the parked car where Ferraro and Karamanolis waited and Ferraro —wrote out a check for $50. The trio then waited around town for several hours before Karamanolis and the 17 - year - old entered the A. & P. Super-market to cash the check, the officer said.

Karamanolis returned to the auto and the 17 - year - old remained in the store while the cashier called the bank to question the account, learning it had just been

$1,700 Blaze Razes House

100 Chicks Lost In Shadyside Area Fire

Fire of undetermined origin razed an unoccupied four - room frame home on May St., near Shadyside Ave., early this morning, destroying the dwelling along with furniture and 100 baby chicks.

A stiff breeze whipped the flames when the fire broke out about 4 a. m. and the structure was leveled in a matter of minutes. The house was owned by James E. Tice.

Firemen from both Glenmoor and LaCroft departments responded to the alarm, turned in by Mrs. Tice who happened to be awake at the time and smelled burning wood.

Firemen, who were investigating this morning to pinpoint the cause of the blaze, estimated the total loss at $1,700. The house was not insured, according to Mrs. Tice.

Firemen theorize that an electric light left burning for warmth for the 5 -week - old chicks may have shorted.

Icy highways hampered firemen from both departments in getting at the scene. Glenmoor sent two trucks, and LaCroft firemen arrived with one truck.

The home was situated on a double lot, near the Tice residence, but the fire did not endanger any other buildings. The house has been untenanted and has been used for storage purposes.

This Crash Bound To Happen

High-Sprung School Bus; Low-Slung Sports Car. . . . !

"Beep-beep, beep-beep" went the little French horn on a small sports car, but all to no avail, the big bus still backed over the top of it.

This was found to happen—an accident involving a school bus driven by Fred Landsberger, 37, of East Palestine R. D. 1 and a 1958 Renault sports car driven by George Churchin, 25, of Youngstown Friday at 3:45 p. m. on Route 14 a half mile west of the Ohio-Pennsylvania state line.

Landsberger, driving a bus owned by the Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in East Palestine, had halted on the highway. Churchin stopped directly behind him. Landsberger then started to back the bus into a driveway to turn around and rolled over the sports car. The bus driver halted when he felt something crunch.

Churchin told the Lisbon State Highway Patrol that he kept blowing the horn but to no avail. Landsberger said he didn't see the little car in the rearview mirror and didn't hear any horn.

A check showed that Churchin had a small French horn which made only a weak "Beep-beep."

Seventeen children were on the bus. No one was injured.

Churchin was cited for failure to transfer his license plates. He was fined $50 and costs at a hearing later before Mayor Paul Merwin of East Palestine.

Another Youngstown motorist was arrested for reckless operation after his car sheared off a utility pole and then struck a car parked in a private driveway at 5:30 a. m. today on Route 164 two miles north of Lisbon.

William Fergus, 48, was traveling too fast for the icy condition of the road, lost control and went off the right side of the highway, officers said. The car sheared off the utility pole and then continued 200 feet up a private driveway, striking a car owned by William Coalmer of Leetonia R. D. 2., the patrol said.

Adjournment Week Away

West Virginia Legislature Seeks Tax Measure Accord

CHARLESTON (AP) — The 1959 Legislature's efforts to get together on a general revenue tax program are building up to a frenzied final week. The adjournment deadline for the 60-day session is a week from today.

First it was the House's turn to try. Then it was the Senate's. Now, with time running out, it is the House's move again.

The effort is to come up with tax measures the two chambers can agree upon as ways to raise more money for services financed out of general revenue. That means such things as education, mental hospitals, other institutions, and public assistance.

Last Monday the House took the plunge and passed a state income tax bill, estimated to amount to up to 14 million dollars in annual revenue. The Senate Finance Committee promptly killed the House-passed bill as soon as it reached the other end of the capitol.

Now the Senate has completed passage of four general revenue tax bills of its own, adding up to roughly six million a year. The last two, approved yesterday, would apply the gross sales tax at a rate of 1 per cent to professional income alone $5,000 and increase the tax on pari-mutuel betting at horse race tracks from 5 to 5¾ per cent.

The other two Senate bills, approved earlier in the week, would extend the gross sales surtax to contractors and impose a new tax on transfers of real estate ownership.

Only the transfer tax has yet come to a House vote. The House passed the bill, but first chopped it down from a three - million-dollar measure to one that would yield about $200,000 a year. The Senate refused yesterday to concur in the drastic revision and the disagreement now is going to a conference committee.

The House's income tax advocates may not be through, despite the quick death their bill met in Senate Finance. There are indications they now may try to amend one of the Senate - approved tax bills into a fairly widespread tax on incomes. The professional tax bill would be a likely choice for such an operation.

Yesterday a new tax bill entered the picture. House Finance sent to the floor a bill that would raise the rates on 12 of the 21 categories of business and industry that pay the gross sales tax.

The bill also would extend indefinitely a 1958 revenue act that is now scheduled to expire June 30, 1960. That act suspended a 5 per cent deduction that has been allowed under the gross sales tax law.

It is estimated the rate increases would add about $3,300,000 to the annual yield of the gross sales tax. Already bringing in about 50 million a year, the gross sales levy is the state's biggest source of general revenue.

A deadlock over the effective date for an increase in the gasoline tax was broken yesterday. The Senate, which had held out for July 1, accepted the House's April 1 version, re - passed the bill and sent it to Gov. Underwood.

The bill will raise the tax on gasoline and diesel fuel from six to seven cents a gallon and thereby add some 4½ million dollars to state revenue available for road construction.

The final Senate vote on the gasoline tax hike was 24-8.

The increase is earmarked for taking up federal funds available in the next fiscal year for construction on the Interstate Highway System.

A second major highway revenue measure is headed for a conference committee which will try to compromise a Senate - House disagreement. This is the bill to increase the cost of automobile and truck licenses.

The Senate first passed a version amounting to an additional $2,400,000 a year. Before passing the Senate bill, the House amended it upward to $3,200,000. The Senate refused to go along, and the House refused yesterday to back down from its position.

The House passed by an 81-3 vote yesterday a bill which would repeal the 1958 act that extended the soft drinks tax to a variety of products that are used in making soft drinks at home. The bill now goes to the Senate.

This Crash Bound To Happen

High-Sprung School Bus; Low-Slung Sports Car. . . . !

"Beep-beep, beep-beep" went the little French horn on a small sports car, but all to no avail, the big bus still backed over the top of it.

This was found to happen—an accident involving a school bus driven by Fred Landsberger, 37, of East Palestine R. D. 1 and a 1958 Renault sports car driven by George Churchin, 25, of Youngstown Friday at 3:45 p. m. on Route 14 a half mile west of the Ohio-Pennsylvania state line.

Landsberger, driving a bus owned by the Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in East Palestine, had halted on the highway. Churchin stopped directly behind him. Landsberger then started to back the bus into a driveway to turn around and rolled over the sports car. The bus driver halted when he felt something crunch.

Churchin told the Lisbon State Highway Patrol that he kept blowing the horn but to no avail. Landsberger said he didn't see the little car in the rearview mirror and didn't hear any horn.

A check showed that Churchin had a small French horn which made only a weak "Beep-beep."

Seventeen children were on the bus. No one was injured.

Churchin was cited for failure to transfer his license plates. He was fined $50 and costs at a hearing later before Mayor Paul Merwin of East Palestine.

Another Youngstown motorist was arrested for reckless operation after his car sheared off a utility pole and then struck a car parked in a private driveway at 5:30 a. m. today on Route 164 two miles north of Lisbon.

William Fergus, 48, was traveling too fast for the icy condition of the road, lost control and went off the right side of the highway, officers said. The car sheared off the utility pole and then continued 200 feet up a private driveway, striking a car owned by William Coalmer of Leetonia R. D. 2., the patrol said.

Hancock County Prosecutor, Frank A. Pietranton said Cunningham, 40, admitted shooting his blonde wife and then trying to

Winter Slaps District With 'Dying' Blows

Winter has only two weeks to go but it was hanging on tenaciously and lashing out with heavy snow squalls, sub-freezing temperatures and biting winds today in what could be its last frigid fling before spring.

The high winds, with gusts estimated at 30 to 35 miles an hour velocity, prevented the snow from accumulating but highways were in hazardous condition with some drifting.

The blowing snow was so dense at times windshield wipers were useless, several motorists said, and this coupled with slick roads made driving dangerous Friday night. Ice added to the treacherous conditions in the Tri-State area.

The Lisbon State Highway Patrol said roads in Columbiana County are ice covered and slippery.

One city street crew was called out at 7 p. m. Friday to begin salting and ashing major streets, Supt. W. M. Laughlin said. The crew remained on duty all night and other crews resumed the work this morning.

One minor skidding accident was reported about midnight on Lincoln Ave., police said.

The mercury fell to 25 degrees as the overnight low and it will be slightly colder tonight, with a minimum of 17 to 22 forecast. Only scattered snow flurries were predicted for this afternoon and the winds were expected to diminish.

The weather Sunday will be sunny and warmer, according to the Ohio weatherman. Ohio Valley residents, completely tired of one of the worst winters in over 10 years, are looking ahead to March 21—that's when spring is due.

"I earnestly hope and pray that Secretary of State Dulles will be well enough to take part," he added.

2 Teenagers Bound Over In Check Case

Alert Market Clerk Credited For Arrest; Juvenile Also Held

Two Steubenville teenagers were bound over to the Columbiana County Grand Jury today under $1,000 bonds in a check forgery case in which a 17 - year - old companion, also from Steubenville, was used as a "front."

Their slick scheme to cash a $50 check failed Thursday when alert supermarket clerks checked the bank to question the account.

Frank J. Ferraro, 18, and Christopher Karamanolis, 19, pleaded guilty when arraigned before Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw on charges of forging a $50 check on the Potters Bank & Trust Co.

Capt. R. H. Pyle said the pair are wanted by Steubenville officers for passing a $115 check there with the same scheme. Ferraro is out on a $4,000 bond for cashing stolen U.S. Savings Bonds and Karamanolis has a record of petty offenses, the officer added.

The 17 - year - old, on probation in Jefferson County, will be given a hearing before Chris Pusey, juvenile officer, and then probably will be turned back to Steubenville authorities, Capt. Pyle said.

Capt. Pyle said the 17 - year-old boy entered the bank just before noon Thursday and opened a checking account under the name of "Pete Pobega." He deposited $10 in the account and received a checkbook.

The boy then returned to the parked car where Ferraro and Karamanolis waited and Ferraro —wrote out a check for $50. The trio then waited around town for several hours before Karamanolis and the 17 - year - old entered the A. & P. Super-market to cash the check, the officer said.

Karamanolis returned to the auto and the 17 - year - old remained in the store while the cashier called the bank to question the account, learning it had just been

$1,700 Blaze Razes House

100 Chicks Lost In Shadyside Area Fire

Fire of undetermined origin razed an unoccupied four - room frame home on May St., near Shadyside Ave., early this morning, destroying the dwelling along with furniture and 100 baby chicks.

A stiff breeze whipped the flames when the fire broke out about 4 a. m. and the structure was leveled in a matter of minutes. The house was owned by James E. Tice.

Firemen from both Glenmoor and LaCroft departments responded to the alarm, turned in by Mrs. Tice who happened to be awake at the time and smelled burning wood.

Firemen, who were investigating this morning to pinpoint the cause of the blaze, estimated the total loss at $1,700. The house was not insured, according to Mrs. Tice.

Firemen theorize that an electric light left burning for warmth for the 5 -week - old chicks may have shorted.

Icy highways hampered firemen from both departments in getting at the scene. Glenmoor sent two trucks, and LaCroft firemen arrived with one truck.

The home was situated on a double lot, near the Tice residence, but the fire did not endanger any other buildings. The house has been untenanted and has been used for storage purposes.

the superintendent pointed out.

In discussing the need for operating funds, Betts said the school board will have to ask voters at the Nobember general election to renew an 8-mill levy for operation.

"In addition, there are several reasons which may make it necessary for the board to ask residents to approve an additional levy," he warned.

Voters approved a new 3-mill levy in November 1957, with the result the board granted salary increases to all personnel and boosted slightly the funds available for maintenance, textbooks and equipment a year ago.

"EVEN WITH the increases granted, we have lost ground in our effort to be competitive with other communities seeking teachers," Betts said.

He cited a report from the Ohio Education Association showing that among 137 cities in Ohio, only 16 have lower maximum salaries than East Liverpool offers —and practically all are much smaller.

The $5,200 maximum here is the lowest paid in this section, the report showed. Leetonia and Cadiz have maximums of $5,400; Salem $5,460; Martins Ferry, $5,600; Alliance, $5,800, and Toronto, Steubenville and New Philadelphia, $6,000.

"If we are going to continue to attract the kind of teachers we want to work with our boys and girls and continue to hold the good teachers we now have, we must expect to find ways and means to pay them more money."

THE STATE Legislature "in all probability" will increase the amount of state support to schools. But since all schools will share in any increase, East Liverpool's relative position would not be improved greatly, the superintendent said.

In addition to salaries for personnel, there are other reasons for increased operating funds, Betts continued. The recent appraisal of school buildings and equipment shows an insurable value of $6,632,301.

"If we are to properly maintain these plants, it cannot be done with the amount available at present."

Betts pointed out sound business practice dictates at least one per cent of the value of the buildings be set aside for their annual maintenance. "That would be about twice what we now have available," he said.

BETTS SAID IN his opinion it would be sound practice to employ a business manager for the school system. When the amount invested in plants and equipment is considered, it serves to point out the values of such a person, he added.

The board also should consider the possibility of adding a pyschologist and two speech therapists to the staff. A certificated psychologist now is teaching in elementary schools, he explained, adding that it is hoped he will be able to devote part of his time as a school psychologist during the next term.

"If we are going to maintain modern equipment, adequate textbooks and educational supplies, and we must do this if our children are going to have the same opportunities the youth in other communities have—then we must have more money for these purposes.

"We have many good teachers on our staff; but good teachers need good tools with which to work.

—:—

"IT WOULD SEEM when all this is considered that it is the responsibility of the administration and the Board of Education to lay this story plainly, graphically and bluntly before the community in order that the citizens may decide what kind of schools they want for their children."

The remainder of his report was devoted to reviewing the accomplishments made last year.

Thirty-one new teachers were employed for the professional staff last summer. One was an increase in the special educational program, two were an increase in the staff at Westgate Junior High, seven represented an increase in the elementary staff, and the balance were employed to replace those who resigned or retired.

THE INCREASE IN the elementary staff permitted the board to abandon all double grades except at Klondyke School, Betts pointed out. Although it is desirable, it may not be possible to continue because the staff now is beyond the number allowable according to the formula established by the state foundation program, he said.

It still is difficult to find desirable teachers in some secondary school areas, Betts continued, pointing out the board has not been able to secure a girl's physical education teacher for the senior high school.

New textbooks were adopted for bookkeeping, biology, economics, American history, world history and seventh grade science.

A standardized test for all high school students was included in the testing program. The results showed college preparatory pupils slightly above the established norms and students in the commercial and general courses slightly below.

STANDARDIZED achievement tests were given third, fifth and sixth grade pupils with third and sixth grade pupils showing above average and the fifth grade pupils were average.

The high school was one of nine in Ohio selected to participate in the North Central Association's project on "The Guidance and Motivation of Superior and Talented Secondary School Students" with the result honor classes were established for superior students in junior and senior English, American history and chemistry.

A modification of the plan is being followed in the junior high schools, he said.

Betts' report also discussed the establishment of a branch of Kent State University here. It is scheduled to open in September.

—:—

BESIDES THE major maintenance work at Central, the report showed the board spent $1,800 for painting plaster walls, $2,675 for installing modern fluorescent lighting, and $1,182 for plastering, all at Neville; $3,700 for repair of heating plants in 10 buildings, $1,275 for repointing the coping on the north and west sides of the high school, and about $2,000 for plumbing repairs throughout the system.

Completion of the Taft School addition ended the building program started in 1951 when a $2,725,000 bond issue was passed. Klondyke now is the only school without six grades.

Betts pointed out it was the "diligence of those who served on the board" that made it possible to construct the new LaCroft School and the addition at Taft over and above the buildings promised in the bond issue.

Although it is desirable, it may not be possible to continue because the staff now is beyond the number allowable according to the formula established by the state foundation program, he said.

It still is difficult to find desirable teachers in some secondary school areas, Betts continued, pointing out the board has not been able to secure a girl's physical education teacher for the senior high school.

New textbooks were adopted for bookkeeping, biology, economics, American history, world history and seventh grade science.

A standardized test for all high school students was included in the testing program. The results showed college preparatory pupils slightly above the established norms and students in the commercial and general courses slightly below.

STANDARDIZED achievement tests were given third, fifth and sixth grade pupils with third and sixth grade pupils showing above average and the fifth grade pupils were average.

The high school was one of nine in Ohio selected to participate in the North Central Association's project on "The Guidance and Motivation of Superior and Talented Secondary School Students" with the result honor classes were established for superior students in junior and senior English, American history and chemistry.

A modification of the plan is being followed in the junior high schools, he said.

Betts' report also discussed the establishment of a branch of Kent State University here. It is scheduled to open in September.

—:—

BESIDES THE major maintenance work at Central, the report showed the board spent $1,800 for painting plaster walls, $2,675 for installing modern fluorescent lighting, and $1,182 for plastering, all at Neville; $3,700 for repair of heating plants in 10 buildings, $1,275 for repointing the coping on the north and west sides of the high school, and about $2,000 for plumbing repairs throughout the system.

Completion of the Taft School addition ended the building program started in 1951 when a $2,725,000 bond issue was passed. Klondyke now is the only school without six grades.

Betts pointed out it was the "diligence of those who served on the board" that made it possible to construct the new LaCroft School and the addition at Taft over and above the buildings promised in the bond issue.

100 Attend Annual Dinner Meeting

Counseling Center Role In Community Stressed

The interdependence of a community and a counseling center was emphasized Friday night when some 100 attended the annual dinner meeting of the local Child Counseling Center in the social rooms of the First Church of Christ.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Frank P. Lesquin, director of the Mary and Alexander children's center at Sewickley, Pa.

The business phase of the meeting included the annual election of directors. Five approved for terms on the board were Mrs. J. Nessly Porter, Mrs. William A. Harris, Rowland T. Kaufman, Charles Shriver and Arthur Thomas. Mrs. Porter and Thomas were named to new terms, with the others serving for the first time.

Judge Louis Tobin, chairman of the board, presided during the meeting.

MRS. LESQUIN, in stressing the important role that a counseling center can play in a community, said it should "supplement and implement services already available."

Pointing out that some nine million people in the United States are suffering from emotional problems, the speaker said that preventive steps are necessary to help combat the situation.

A counseling center such as the one here was called a vital force in such preventive action.

Mrs. Lesquin explained that a community should be made aware of the facts on mental illness and should learn and accept its responsibility to the individual in helping him resume his proper place in life.

Correction of an emotional disturbance through proper treatment is virtually useless, she said, if the person benefitted is not received in the right manner when he or she returns to the community.

She compared it "to a person just cured of pneumonia being tossed out into a pile of snow."

—:—

THE VALUE of "diversity of service" by a clinic or counseling center also was pointed out. The speaker explained "it is a coming trend which should prove helpful."

A counseling center also was termed a place of "support" which every family needs to some degree.

Mrs. Lesquin said that family life has changed a great deal over the years, with too many "isolated groups" today in contrast to the old days when everyone had a hand in helping bring up the family.

"A center gives those who need it someone to talk to," she continued.

The speaker concluded by summarizing the "four needs" of children. She classed them as "the feeling that he or she belongs"; being accepted for what they are; setting of limits as to what is expected, and a proper example by parents, including teaching of the difference between right and wrong and the establishment of proper religious training.

Mrs. Lesquin was introduced by Paul Blair, assistant superintendent of schools and a director of the center.

OTHERS taking part in the program included Mrs. Russell H. Smith, who extended an invitation to everyone in the community to become members, and Elmer Namy, the center's executive secretary, who reviewed the development of the organization over the last five years.

A special tribute was paid by Judge Tobin and those present to Mrs. J. Donald Thompson and Dr. C. H. Bailey, two of the moving forces behind the center. Mrs. Thompson was unable to attend the meeting because of illness.

A balance of $1,107 was reported in the treasury as of March 5 in the annual financial statement by Miss Elizabeth Coleman, treasurer.

Judge Tobin, in his welcoming remarks, expressed the center's thanks to the city's parent-teacher groups who have helped so much in its development, financially and otherwise.

The invocation was by the Rev. John N. Mostoller of the First Church of Christ and the benediction by the Rev. Marc A. Nocerino of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

The dinner committee for the event included Miss Helen Allison and Mrs. Thompson, co-chairmen; Mrs. Myer Alpern, Mrs. Smith and Miss Coleman.

The dinner was served by the Loyal Workers Class of the church.

More Streets To Be Treated

Liverpool Township List Increased To 20

Nine more streets, making a total of over 20, were approved for the 1959 summer surfacing program at a meeting of the Liverpool Township trustees Friday night at City Hall.

Other streets were discussed and if all are completed, this will be one of the largest programs ever undertaken by the trustees. The roads are improved under a five-year program calling for two years of oil treatment and three years of application of blade mix. Residents buy the slag, trustees furnish the emulsion and the county furnishes the equipment.

Approved last night were Gilson Ave., Broadview Circle, Hill Blvd., Pleasant St. and part of Harding Ave., all in the Hill Addition, and parts of Blackmore Ave., Fisher Ave., Carolina Ave. and Burrows Ave., all in the Maplewood section.

The trustees also discussed improving Dairy Rd., Crestview Dr. and Sherwood Ave. They also discussed applying oil to some streets.

Three residents of Gilson Ave. were given permission to install storm sewers in front of their property.

In other business, a new fire alarm system for the East and West volunteer departments was approved. A four-way telephone system will be hooked up with an automatic siren control in each department. With four telephones, a caller can be assured of reaching someone in time of emergency.

When the emergency phone is answered, it will trigger the siren which will ring intermitently for two minutes. The systems will be installed at the LaCroft and Dixonville stations.

The next regular meeting will be March 20. Guy Digman is chairman.

Big Part Of The Money

Ohio's Budget Accent Is On Youth

By DUANE E. CROFT
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Among the special features that stand out in a second or third look at the Ohio budget for the next biennium, one of the most interesting is the accent on youth.

A rundown of the items specifically earmarked for the care and improvement of youngsters shows the state's minors account for a major part of the expenditures.

Increases recommended in youth programs by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and his staff add up to $79,620,000 for a total request of $554,670,000.

Education Gets Most

Education, of course, takes the lion's share — $427,900,000 for public education plus $99,400,000 to operate the six state universities. Their combined increase over the present two-year appropriation is $68,300,000, a sizable slice of it automatically required under the school foundation fund program.

The biggest percentage increase for a single program in DiSalle's budget is for another youth item—11½ million dollars for the Division of Juvenile Research, Classification and Training in the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction.

"This situation is one in which we must pay the price of years of neglect," the governor told the legislators. "This neglect has resulted in near-chaotic deterioration of this program."

Scholarships Asked

The only entirely new item on the "young" side of the ledger is also the smallest. But the $500,000 asked for a state scholarship fund augmented by private subscription could be one of the most far-reaching if it wins the Assembly's approval.

It would, the governor said, "give needed assistance to worthy students who would otherwise be unable to gain a college education. . . . We presently forego the benefits of outstanding minds due simply to economic barriers."

Those are only a few of the ways in which the state invests in its young people. The others include aid to dependent children, to crippled children and for education of mentally deficient youth.

Overenthusiastic

In his struggle to find the extra revenue needed to operate Ohio in the black and still provide increased "necessities," Gov. DiSalle appears to have been overenthusiastic about one source of income.

In his press briefing on the budget, he estimated a sales tax on hotel and motel services would produce 15 million dollars for the biennium.

The recent Legislative Service Commission report on state finances and tax resources, however, estimated such a tax would produce $1,885,000 a year, or a little less than four million for the two-year period.

Ohio Just A Piker

Although the 1,589 bills introduced in the current session of the Assembly set a modern record, Ohio still is a piker compared to some of her sister states.

In New York, for instance, the total soars as high as 7,000 in spite of the fact the Legislature meets every year. Handling of the work load is expedited by letting members introduce bills before the session starts so they can get right to work when they convene.

California approaches New York's mark with 6,000 or so. In both of those states, as in Ohio, scarcely more than 20 per cent ever become law. The vast majority are sent to committee and never again see the light of day.

From A To W

Stark County perhaps can lay claim to having the "first and the last, the oldest and the youngest" legislators in the 103rd Assembly.

Although no confirmation is possible because official records do not list ages, it is likely that Rep. Guy C. Hiner (R-Stark) is the oldest at 77 and Rep. Donald C. Nist Jr. (D-Stark) at 24 is the youngest member of the House of Representatives.

And Rep. John Andrews (D-Stark) is first on the alphabetical list of House members while Sen. Ed Witmer (D-Canton) is the last man on the Senate's roll call list.

Professor Thinks Evangelism Will Not Have Lasting Effect

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Religion Writer

Will the current era of mass evangelism, personified by globe-trotting Billy Graham, have a lasting effect on American religious and cultural life?

"No," says William G. McLoughlin Jr., an assistant professor of history and American civilization at Brown University and a longtime student of revivalism, in a book "Modern Revivalism" published this week by Ronald Press.

The book reviews the religious awakenings and revivals of the last 135 years, assuming that modern revivalism began about 1825 with Charles G. Finney, it is more than mildly critical of the phenomenon.

The surprising things about big religious revivals in America, says McLoughlin, is that they occur so infrequently and "have produced so few tangible or lasting results."

In the last 225 years, McLoughlin finds only four major "great awakenings" or religious revivals. The current one, he thinks, began about 1945 and will run possibly to 1970.

Contrary to popular belief, "there is no meaningful correlation," McLoughlin says "between the great national awakenings in America and the great periods of political or economic crisis."

The roots of the current awakening, McLoughlin finds, lie in the conflict between a once-dominant but disillusioned liberal Protestantism and a resurgent neo-fundamentalism or neo-orthodoxy.

Modern revivalists, the author thinks, not only have had little lasting effect on religious life but they "have been a primary factor in the increasing secularization of American Protestantism."

"In trying to follow the maxim of the Apostle and be all things to all men in order that they might win some to Christ, they inevitably diluted and confused a message which, if it was to have any force, had to be concise, direct and clear-cut."

Fred Stone, 85, Veteran Stage, Screen Star, Dies

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Fred Stone, whose nimble song and dance acts and amazing acrobatics delighted musical comedy audiences for decades, is dead at 85.

The veteran of 50 years on stage and screen died Friday at his home from a complication of ailments. A heart attack about two years ago was soon followed by total blindness.

Stone's sight had been failing for five or six years, the delayed effect of injuries suffered in a 1927 plane crash.

He was flying solo between his Connecticut farm and rehearsals for a Broadway show when he crashed. Both legs were broken, an ankle crushed, his jaw broken. His friend, Will Rogers, flew from Hollywood to replace him in the show, "Three Cheers."

A barber's son, born in Valmont, Colo., Fred started as a circus acrobat and worked in medicine and minstrel shows before teaming up with Dave Montgomery in 1895 to form a song and dance act.

PROPER DIGESTION OF FOOD is necessary for better body health. Mastication, the process of chewing your food enough to permit its preparation for entry into the stomach, is handicapped if your teeth cannot accomplish their duty.

MODERN DENTAL RESEARCH has uncovered many new helpful techniques for making teeth less subject to decay and possible loss. Your dentist judges his professional success by his ability to help you keep your teeth instead of losing them.

A VISIT TO YOUR DENTIST is no longer something to be feared. Your dentist has new "miracle" drugs to prevent pain and promote healing. He can prescribe mineral and vitamin medicines for people who are susceptible to cavities. His local treatments prevent their formation.

100 Attend Annual Dinner Meeting

Counseling Center Role In Community Stressed

The interdependence of a community and a counseling center was emphasized Friday night when some 100 attended the annual dinner meeting of the local Child Counseling Center in the social rooms of the First Church of Christ.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Frank P. Lesquin, director of the Mary and Alexander children's center at Sewickley, Pa.

The business phase of the meeting included the annual election of directors. Five approved for terms on the board were Mrs. J. Nessly Porter, Mrs. William A. Harris, Rowland T. Kaufman, Charles Shriver and Arthur Thomas. Mrs. Porter and Thomas were named to new terms, with the others serving for the first time.

Judge Louis Tobin, chairman of the board, presided during the meeting.

MRS. LESQUIN, in stressing the important role that a counseling center can play in a community, said it should "supplement and implement services already available."

Pointing out that some nine million people in the United States are suffering from emotional problems, the speaker said that preventive steps are necessary to help combat the situation.

A counseling center such as the one here was called a vital force in such preventive action.

Mrs. Lesquin explained that a community should be made aware of the facts on mental illness and should learn and accept its responsibility to the individual in helping him resume his proper place in life.

Correction of an emotional disturbance through proper treatment is virtually useless, she said, if the person benefitted is not received in the right manner when he or she returns to the community.

She compared it "to a person just cured of pneumonia being tossed out into a pile of snow."

—:—

THE VALUE of "diversity of service" by a clinic or counseling center also was pointed out. The speaker explained "it is a coming trend which should prove helpful."

A counseling center also was termed a place of "support" which every family needs to some degree.

Mrs. Lesquin said that family life has changed a great deal over the years, with too many "isolated groups" today in contrast to the old days when everyone had a hand in helping bring up the family.

"A center gives those who need it someone to talk to," she continued.

The speaker concluded by summarizing the "four needs" of children. She classed them as "the feeling that he or she belongs"; being accepted for what they are; setting of limits as to what is expected, and a proper example by parents, including teaching of the difference between right and wrong and the establishment of proper religious training.

Mrs. Lesquin was introduced by Paul Blair, assistant superintendent of schools and a director of the center.

OTHERS taking part in the program included Mrs. Russell H. Smith, who extended an invitation to everyone in the community to become members, and Elmer Namy, the center's executive secretary, who reviewed the development of the organization over the last five years.

A special tribute was paid by Judge Tobin and those present to Mrs. J. Donald Thompson and Dr. C. H. Bailey, two of the moving forces behind the center. Mrs. Thompson was unable to attend the meeting because of illness.

A balance of $1,107 was reported in the treasury as of March 5 in the annual financial statement by Miss Elizabeth Coleman, treasurer.

Judge Tobin, in his welcoming remarks, expressed the center's thanks to the city's parent-teacher groups who have helped so much in its development, financially and otherwise.

The invocation was by the Rev. John N. Mostoller of the First Church of Christ and the benediction by the Rev. Marc A. Nocerino of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

The dinner committee for the event included Miss Helen Allison and Mrs. Thompson, co-chairmen; Mrs. Myer Alpern, Mrs. Smith and Miss Coleman.

The dinner was served by the Loyal Workers Class of the church.

Professor Thinks Evangelism Will Not Have Lasting Effect

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Religion Writer

Will the current era of mass evangelism, personified by globe-trotting Billy Graham, have a lasting effect on American religious and cultural life?

"No," says William G. McLoughlin Jr., an assistant professor of history and American civilization at Brown University and a longtime student of revivalism, in a book "Modern Revivalism" published this week by Ronald Press.

The book reviews the religious awakenings and revivals of the last 135 years, assuming that modern revivalism began about 1825 with Charles G. Finney, it is more than mildly critical of the phenomenon.

The surprising things about big religious revivals in America, says McLoughlin, is that they occur so infrequently and "have produced so few tangible or lasting results."

In the last 225 years, McLoughlin finds only four major "great awakenings" or religious revivals. The current one, he thinks, began about 1945 and will run possibly to 1970.

Contrary to popular belief, "there is no meaningful correlation," McLoughlin says "between the great national awakenings in America and the great periods of political or economic crisis."

The roots of the current awakening, McLoughlin finds, lie in the conflict between a once-dominant but disillusioned liberal Protestantism and a resurgent neo-fundamentalism or neo-orthodoxy.

Modern revivalists, the author thinks, not only have had little lasting effect on religious life but they "have been a primary factor in the increasing secularization of American Protestantism."

"In trying to follow the maxim of the Apostle and be all things to all men in order that they might win some to Christ, they inevitably diluted and confused a message which, if it was to have any force, had to be concise, direct and clear-cut."

More Streets To Be Treated

Liverpool Township List Increased To 20

Nine more streets, making a total of over 20, were approved for the 1959 summer surfacing program at a meeting of the Liverpool Township trustees Friday night at City Hall.

Other streets were discussed and if all are completed, this will be one of the largest programs ever undertaken by the trustees. The roads are improved under a five-year program calling for two years of oil treatment and three years of application of blade mix. Residents buy the slag, trustees furnish the emulsion and the county furnishes the equipment.

Approved last night were Gilson Ave., Broadview Circle, Hill Blvd., Pleasant St. and part of Harding Ave., all in the Hill Addition, and parts of Blackmore Ave., Fisher Ave., Carolina Ave. and Burrows Ave., all in the Maplewood section.

The trustees also discussed improving Dairy Rd., Crestview Dr. and Sherwood Ave. They also discussed applying oil to some streets.

Three residents of Gilson Ave. were given permission to install storm sewers in front of their property.

In other business, a new fire alarm system for the East and West volunteer departments was approved. A four-way telephone system will be hooked up with an automatic siren control in each department. With four telephones, a caller can be assured of reaching someone in time of emergency.

When the emergency phone is answered, it will trigger the siren which will ring intermittently for two minutes. The systems will be installed at the LaCroft and Dixonville stations.

The next regular meeting will be March 20. Guy Digman is chairman.

A nominating committee was named, including Mrs. Paul Brucker, chairman, Mrs. Steve Hazy and Mrs. Edward Englefield. Mrs. Hazy, membership chairman, said attendance awards were won by the third grade at Ohio View and the second grade at Industry.

An Executive Board meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jerome McCreery March 26 with Mrs. Woodrow Pslugh as co-hostess.

Next regular meeting will be held April 2 at Logan School with second grade mothers as hostesses. Mrs. Joseph Hornick will be hostess committee chairman.

Big Part Of The Money

Ohio's Budget Accent Is On Youth

By DUANE E. CROFT
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Among the special features that stand out in a second or third look at the Ohio budget for the next biennium, one of the most interesting is the accent on youth.

A rundown of the items specifically earmarked for the care and improvement of youngsters shows the state's minors account for a major part of the expenditures.

Increases recommended in youth programs by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and his staff add up to $79,620,000 for a total request of $554,670,000.

Education Gets Most

Education, of course, takes the lion's share — $427,900,000 for public education plus $99,400,000 to operate the six state universities. Their combined increase over the present two-year appropriation is $68,300,000, a sizable slice of it automatically required under the school foundation fund program.

The biggest percentage increase for a single program in DiSalle's budget is for another youth item—11½ million dollars for the Division of Juvenile Research, Classification and Training in the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction.

"This situation is one in which we must pay the price of years of neglect," the governor told the legislators. "This neglect has resulted in near-chaotic deterioration of this program."

Scholarships Asked

The only entirely new item on the "young" side of the ledger is also the smallest. But the $500,000 asked for a state scholarship fund augmented by private subscription could be one of the most far-reaching if it wins the Assembly's approval.

It would, the governor said, "give needed assistance to worthy students who would otherwise be unable to gain a college education. . . . We presently forego the benefits of outstanding minds due simply to economic barriers."

Those are only a few of the ways in which the state invests in its young people. The others include aid to dependent children, to crippled children and for education of mentally deficient youth.

Overenthusiastic

In his struggle to find the extra revenue needed to operate Ohio in the black and still provide increased "necessities," Gov. DiSalle appears to have been overenthusiastic about one source of income.

In his press briefing on the budget, he estimated a sales tax on hotel and motel services would produce 15 million dollars for the biennium.

The recent Legislative Service Commission report on state finances and tax resources, however, estimated such a tax would produce $1,885,000 a year, or a little less than four million for the two-year period.

Ohio Just A Piker

Although the 1,589 bills introduced in the current session of the Assembly set a modern record, Ohio still is a piker compared to some of her sister states.

In New York, for instance, the total soars as high as 7,000 in spite of the fact the Legislature meets every year. Handling of the work load is expedited by letting members introduce bills before the session starts so they can get right to work when they convene.

California approaches New York's mark with 6,000 or so. In both of those states, as in Ohio, scarcely more than 20 per cent ever become law. The vast majority are sent to committee and never again see the light of day.

From A To W

Stark County perhaps can lay claim to having the "first and the last, the oldest and the youngest" legislators in the 103rd Assembly.

Although no confirmation is possible because official records do not list ages, it is likely that Rep. Guy C. Hiner (R-Stark) is the oldest at 77 and Rep. Donald C. Nist Jr. (D-Stark) at 24 is the youngest member of the House of Representatives.

And Rep. John Andrews (D-Stark) is first on the alphabetical list of House members while Sen. Ed Witmer (D-Canton) is the last man on the Senate's roll call list.

Fred Stone, 85, Veteran Stage, Screen Star, Dies

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Fred Stone, whose nimble song and dance acts and amazing acrobatics delighted musical comedy audiences for decades, is dead at 85.

The veteran of 50 years on stage and screen died Friday at his home from a complication of ailments. A heart attack about two years ago was soon followed by total blindness.

Stone's sight had been failing for five or six years, the delayed effect of injuries suffered in a 1927 plane crash.

He was flying solo between his Connecticut farm and rehearsals for a Broadway show when he crashed. Both legs were broken, an ankle crushed, his jaw broken. His friend, Will Rogers, flew from Hollywood to replace him in the show, "Three Cheers."

A barber's son, born in Valmont, Colo., Fred started as a circus acrobat and worked in medicine and minstrel shows before teaming up with Dave Montgomery in 1895 to form a song and dance act.

Lisbon Board May Let Contract On Addition

LISBON — Letting of a contract to build six new classrooms at Lincoln School and the 1959-1960 school calendar will be the main items of discussion when the Lisbon Board of Education meets Tuesday night, according to Supt. Loren Early.

Bids for the addition will be opened Monday noon and the board expects to let the contract so that work can be started immediately. It is hoped it will be completed for use in September.

A Principle Has Been Laid Down

Gov. DiSalle's special messages have been coming along so thick and fast they aren't getting the attention they deserve.

His message on conflict of interests in government will bear re-reading from time to time, which may have been his motive in getting it on the official record.

No member of his official family and no Ohioan who holds any political position of importance can claim, in the event of trouble, that he did not know how the governor of the state felt about the importance of a public trust.

"The public employe's responsibility to his public trust must be undivided" is the theme of the DiSalle pronouncement on conflict of interests in government.

In the bill that accompanied the special message, it is made clear that this would mean, if enacted, a purification of interests so widespread that no conflicts would remain.

On the supposition that no man can serve two masters whose interests are not identical, every man in a position of trust would be required to choose whether his master would be the public and if so to forswear all others while in public office.

It goes without saying that such a proposal will find scant favor in a General Assembly heavily populated with members who do not think of their legislative duty as a major interest in view of the fact it takes a minor part of their time. But it also goes without saying that members of the General Assembly and all other Ohio officials now know what the official climate is.

"I said in my State of the State message," Gov. DiSalle recalled, "that it was my hope that we could develop an 'esprit de corps,' a pride in being affiliated with public service. This we can accomplish in part by establishing high standards of conduct; standards that will apply to all equally; standards that will assure the individual's complete devotion to his primary obligation to the state."

The first time Gov. DiSalle has occasion to preach a sermon to a wayward state employe, the text is already written.

All Out Of The Same Purse

A proper apology has been made to Ohio State University by Jerome Ellison, who confused it with Ohio University in the Saturday Evening Post, but there is much more to be considered here than an author's error.

It is to be hoped Ohio will consider the author's contention that money is being spent on facilities for higher education in many tax-supported colleges and universities that is not paying off in educational results because there are too many high-jinks and not enough study.

Whether one particular outburst of high-jinks in Ohio occurred at Ohio University or Ohio State University is immaterial. Both are tax-supported. The money is all out of the same purse.

Since this is budget time in Columbus and Ohio has six institutions of higher learning drawing on taxpayers for support, it is timely to be reminded that Bowling Green, Kent, Miami, Ohio University, Ohio State University and Central State College are in the budget for close to 99½ million dollars — considerably less than they requested for the biennium but 100 million dollars to all intents and purposes.

This is a major item. It justifies major curiosity about educational policy — not that one article in one magazine has raised questions that no one ever raised before but that the author, who is on the faculty of Indiana State University, has raised questions that everybody has a right to raise when tax money is being spent.

Is there something wrong with admittance standards and performance requirements in tax-supported schools that may be causing taxpayers to put out substantial sums of money for the sake of education that simply cannot be shown to be producing any real education because "students" are not being required to do any real work?

Ohio taxpayers do not care whether there was a minor mixup in the identity of one of their tax-supported schools. They have a powerful financial reason to wonder if Jerome Ellison's question: "Are We making a Playground Out of College?" can be answered No in the case of Ohio's tax-supported colleges.

Girl Scouts Have A Birthday

It's the turn of district Girl Scouts to sing "Happy Birthday" as they join with others throughout the nation in marking the 47th anniverary of Girl Scouting.

The observance of Girl Scout Week will begin Sunday and continue through next Saturday.

With the anniversary theme, "You Can Count On Her To Be Creative," emphasis is being given to the arts, homemaking and service projects. Girl Scout leaders feel strongly that it is essential for every youngster to develop self - confidence and initiative as well as specific talents.

It's becoming fashionable these days to complain that American youth is not as vigorous or hard working as those behind the Iron Curtain. Girl Scout leaders feel the complaints are unjustified in most cases, with youngsters in Girl Scouting and other youth groups learning to grow up as alert, self-disciplined and useful citizens.

Last year, for example, a 17 - year - old Girl Scout won a national science award for her individual research work in astronomy. While not many Girl Scouts are likely to become astronomers, more than three and one half - million are learning how valuable our freedoms and traditions are. Even more important, they are learning that a democracy depends on citizens who are willing to serve their communities.

Not only the Scouts, but their adult leaders as well are to be congratulated on this 47th birthday. They not only are helping youngsters, but are serving their community and country as well.

Another Reminder

We once again have been reminded of the potentialities of East Liverpool in the economic future of the Upper Ohio Valley.

And included with the reminder was the usual caution that the "citizens must capitalize on this potential."

The advice came from Walter Myers, executive secretary of the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council, during Thursday's meeting of the city's schoolteachers. We need such a jolt every now and then as to our possibilities and our responsibilities.

For some time there has been a pleasant dream that someone, somehow would bring prosperity, better housing, better streets and many other needs.

But the harsh fact remains—whatever we gain must come through hard work and sacrifice, spurred by the confidence that success will be the end result. We apparently have no gushing oil wells, rich uranium deposits, or any other wealth to which we may fall heir. But we do have geographical position, skilled workers and many other advantages too often forgotten.

The recent attention focused on municipal problems has brought to many an awakening to reality. When the understanding of reality reaches the majority of citizens, East Liverpool should be able to get started down the trying but straight path of progress.

By Howard Brodie

Each Friday, amid the tensions, wars and tyrannies of the Middle East, a dedicated band of Franciscan Fathers relives the events of the Via Dolorosa, the last path of Jesus Christ from His condemnation to His tomb.

Recently, I joined them in their sad journey past the stations where Jesus received his cross, where Simon of Cyrene helped Him to carry it, where He met the women of Jerusalem, and on to Calvary.

I marveled that, throughout the years of man-made violence that have swept the Holy Land, this simple act of devotion has prevailed for six centuries, demonstrating that the enduring love Christ taught us is stronger than the passing tensions of the day.

Labor Seeks Food Relief

By Victor Riesel

It's time for lots of us with money in our wallets to say it: Soon there will be actual hunger in the midst of plenty of prosperity in this nation.

Victor Riesel

There are poverty pockets. There are heartbreaks at plant gates each week. There are tens of thousands of charity cases. There are loaded welfare lists. All this, in the midst of plenty—of memories of the '30s.

And all the while the Agricultural Department is nursing more than nine billion dollars worth of surplus foods. Yet there are thousands of families of unemployed men who need this sustenance but will have to grovel or sell their toasters, TV sets or old washing machines and prove themselves absolutely destitute before they can get what is stored up in federal binds.

It takes a trip such as I've just made through this land to see personally that in these poverty pockets in the midst of our very real boom are an estimated one million of the five million jobless. They need help desperately.

THEY'VE BEEN out of work so long, they'll be hungry—real 1930 type hungry—in the next six months.

But it's a rare community—possibly only Bristol, Pa.—which has set up efficient offices to apply for the surplus foods and distribute them in such hard hit areas as Pennsylvania, Northern New York, and Michigan.

Yet the government's Commodity Credit Corp.—official keeper of the stores—now has over nine billion dollars worth of foods such as dried milk, soy beans, cheese, meats and wheat on hand. By June 1960, this vast surplus stockpile of edibles (and a few other commodities such as cotton) will hit 10½ billion dollars.

And just imagine, the sheer cost of keeping this stuff from rotting each year could feed most of the unemployed. Government records reveal that in the 1959 fiscal year it will pay 850 million dollars for storage, transportation and interest on the surpluses. Next year this cost will jump to $1,200,000,000 just for the handling of stuff which apparently will never be eaten by anyone.

THIS MONEY has absolutely nothing to do with the cost of purchasing the surpluses—it's just the handling charges, let me re-emphasize.

But despite the need of those caught in the nation's poverty pockets, only a few million dollars worth of this gargantuan store of staples has been distributed this year.

The AFL-CIO Community Services Committee, headed by Leo Perlis, reports that some of the neediest unemployed will go along on meager diets rather than see themselves left with just meager shreds of dignity.

They feel they lose their self-respect when they are required to fill out forms stating they have no close relatives working, that they have less than a few hundred dollars in the bank, or that they have no assets such as a TV set or an old car. This was the experience of Auto Workers in upper New York, for example.

And even when they have convinced Scrooge-type officials that they are not moochers, they get a handout of dried milk, cheese or soy beans. The officialdom just doesn't bother to attempt to make available the other varieties of surplusess such as meats or eggs.

ALL THIS—and more—will be spoken of bitterly at the AFL-CIO unemployment demonstration in Washington which labor's four-man task force planned in detail in Washington on Wednesday.

From all over the nation, representatives of jobless councils will come by plane, train and chartered bus to hear speakers demand a national moratorium on debts of the unemployed.

They will hear pleas for a holiday on taxes in the form of reduced withholding amounts from pay envelopes each week. Orators will urge a free medical plan tied to the distribution of surplus foods and free legal aid and psychological guidance for families hit by the strains of sudden poverty.

There will be calls for the kind of laws you would expect a "march" on Washington to demand. There will be a surplus of such demands—but, agree with them or not, let's get those billions of dollars worth of foods from the federal bins to the breadbaskets of the folks who need our help.

West's Two Victories

By Jay G. Hayden

Nikita Khrushchev's back - and-forth verbal gymnastics during the visit to Russia of Prime Minister Macmillan have largely obscured two developments greatly favorable to the anti-Communist cause.

First, Britain and Egypt have formally resumed relations, both diplomatic and economic, after a three-year break begun by Gamal Abdel Nasser's seizure of the Suez Canal and intensified by the abortive British - French - Israeli attempt to reverse that action by armed force.

Second, the Island of Cyprus has finally attained political independence with two effects greatly important to the NATO Alliance for defense of Western Europe and the Near East against Communism.

Britain has gained undisputed title to naval and air bases on Cyprus, its last remaining military stronghold in the eastern Mediterranean. And a savage feud between the United States' two most important Middle East allies, Greece and Turkey, has been amicably resolved.

THE BRITISH-EGYPTIAN settlement is peculiarly a triumph for the Eisenhower administration which, from the day the Suez fighting ended, has labored without stint to bind up the resultant wounds.

American cash and know-how combined to clear obstructions from the Suez Canal many months earlier than had been generally predicted. And settlements of first French and then British claims resulting from the Canal seizure were negotiated by Eugene Black, American president of the World Bank.

The British - Egyptian settlement is the more important in that it comes at a time when Russia, from wholly unrelated causes, has been losing favor in Egypt and most other Arab countries.

The Egyptian press, after three years of attack on the United States and Great Britain for oil-lubricated imperialism, just now is directing its assaults against Russia in Iraq.

The Russians were charged with tolerating, if not engineering, the immigration of several thousand Romanian Jews into Israel. Because the Arabs fear a population-packed Israel might burst its borders, they have pressured Russia into promising that the immigration will cease.

THE CAIRO PROPAGANDA machine also is accusing the new Iraqi government of subservience to Communism.

When the revolution last July eliminated the pro-British and pro-American government of King Faisal and Premier Nuri Es-said, it was generally assumed that the succeeding regime would fall in with Nasser's plan for Arab unity. However, the new Iraqi ruler, Gen. Abdul Karim El - Kassem, has grown steadily away from cooperation with Nasser and latterly has seemed to be drifting instead toward reliance on Communists, including acceptance of military assistance from Russia.

American experts have no doubt as to prime Minister Kassem's distaste for any knuckling down to Nasser. But there is less acceptance of the notions either that Kassem is trending toward Communism or that he is anti-Western.

Kassem's main source of government revenue still is his nation's oil production, conducted mainly by the British. Until now that relationship has continued without visible conflict.

The British and American governments are at least hoping that Kassem's cozying up to Russia is mainly for the purpose of scaring off aggression by Egypt. And the Anglo-Saxon oil merchants are doing their level best to keep the Iraqi ruler financially content.

Showdown Delayed

By David Lawrence

Soviet Plays 'Dictator Diplomacy'

The Berlin crisis is running true to form. Just as it appears to be coming to a climax that could mean war, the Soviet bluffer-in-chief retreats a bit. This is the art of maneuvering, which is historically known as dictatorship diplomacy.

David Lawrence

The Soviet ruler now says that the May 27 deadline on forcing Western troops out of Berlin can be moved forward if "sensible negotiations" are under way with the Western powers. Prime Minister Macmillan is hailed as having won this important "concession" from Khrushchev during his recent visit to Moscow.

The moves in the chess game are all too palpable. The British prime minister has said that the West might even be willing to pull some of its troops away from West Germany provided the Russians pulled away from East Germany.

This is a form of "disengagement" which has been debated for many months. In essence, it means a retreat and withdrawal by the West in the face of Soviet pressure. It may not make the West Germans happy but it satisfies the peace-at-any-price sentiment inside Britain, where the British prime minister faces political opposition from the appeaser group all the time.

MEANWHILE, President Eisenhower at his press conference last week was careful not to criticize the British prime minister's mission or its results because, after all, the purpose of the visit was solely to elicit information as to the Kremlin ruler's attitude rather than to reach agreements. As a piece of probing of the other side's intentions, it was to some degree successful.

Mr. Macmillan can also retreat if need be when he finds the American, French and West German view to be in accord with the military recommendations of Gen. Norstad, commander of the NATO forces.

Military men of the West don't think it helps the morale of their forces to be withdrawing Allied troops from West Germany under pressure from Moscow.

Coincidentally in this country, the secretary of defense, Neil McElroy, at a news conference gave the impression that, far from retreating, the United States intends to advocate resistance by force should there be any attempt to compel the Allied troops to get out of Berlin in violation of the existing four-power wartime agreement.

Mr. McElroy said frankly that, if fighting breaks out over Berlin, he doesn't "quite see how you could avoid involving Russian forces," and that it would be "very difficult to keep at a limited war." He added that "We do not see ourselves fighting Russia" in anything that could be called a small war.

THE SECRETARY also remarked that, while there would be reluctance to use nuclear weapons, they certainly would be used if necessary but that he hoped that the friction over Berlin "would not get to the point where that kind of war action would be required."

So from one side comes the usual pressure to win concessions by threat - of - war and bluff tactics. From the other side comes the firm language of potential resistance so that the Soviets will not miscalculate and, in the belief that there would be no resistance at all, take some step that would bring on war.

One reason for the cockiness of the Soviets is the reported belief in the Kremlin that the American people voted against the Eisenhower administration in the 1958 elections and that in 1960 a Democratic administration is coming into power which will be favorable to Moscow.

This impression has been given by the public utterances of some Democratic members of Congress but it by no means reflects accurately the overwhelming sentiment of the Democratic party. There is every reason to believe that the majority in Congress are behind the administration in its firm policy.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER'S call of congressional leaders to a White House conference Friday to discuss the Berlin problem is designed, as was the National Security Council meeting last week, to disabuse the minds of the Russians that the American government is disunited on its policy of potential resistance to any forced withdrawal of Allied troops from Berlin.

There is, moreover, in Moscow at the moment the mistaken belief that the British viewpoint may tend to diverge from the American. This, too, is a fallacy, for, when the chips are down, it is most likely that the Western Allies will be found united.

In the face of such unity, the Soviet government may content itself with handing over paper sovereignty to the East German government and then asking the United Nations to settle the status of Berlin.

Such a development, while inconclusive, could at least avert a war and leave the ultimate disposition of Berlin to be negotiated over a long period of time.

One reason politics is so full of surprises is the tendency of politicians to carve up one another in family fights, as witness the surprise attack on the untouchable Sen. Johnson of Texas by Sen. Proxmire of Wisconsin, his political buddy.

Not night clubs and race tracks, just legitimate expenses, like building and addition to the putty knife factory.

A Principle Has Been Laid Down

Gov. DiSalle's special messages have been coming along so thick and fast they aren't getting the attention they deserve.

His message on conflict of interests in government will bear re-reading from time to time, which may have been his motive in getting it on the official record.

No member of his official family and no Ohioan who holds any political position of importance can claim, in the event of trouble, that he did not know how the governor of the state felt about the importance of a public trust.

"The public employe's responsibility to his public trust must be undivided" is the theme of the DiSalle pronouncement on conflict of interests in government.

In the bill that accompanied the special message, it is made clear that this would mean, if enacted, a purification of interests so widespread that no conflicts would remain.

On the supposition that no man can serve two masters whose interests are not identical, every man in a position of trust would be required to choose whether his master would be the public and if so to forswear all others while in public office.

It goes without saying that such a proposal will find scant favor in a General Assembly heavily populated with members who do not think of their legislative duty as a major interest in view of the fact it takes a minor part of their time. But it also goes without saying that members of the General Assembly and all other Ohio officials now know what the official climate is.

"I said in my State of the State message," Gov. DiSalle recalled, "that it was my hope that we could develop an 'esprit de corps,' a pride in being affiliated with public service. This we can accomplish in part by establishing high standards of conduct; standards that will apply to all equally; standards that will assure the individual's complete devotion to his primary obligation to the state."

The first time Gov. DiSalle has occasion to preach a sermon to a wayward state employe, the text is already written.

All Out Of The Same Purse

A proper apology has been made to Ohio State University by Jerome Ellison, who confused it with Ohio University in the Saturday Evening Post, but there is much more to be considered here than an author's error.

It is to be hoped Ohio will consider the author's contention that money is being spent on facilities for higher education in many tax-supported colleges and universities that is not paying off in educational results because there are too many high-jinks and not enough study.

Whether one particular outburst of high-jinks in Ohio occurred at Ohio University or Ohio State University is immaterial. Both are tax-supported. The money is all out of the same purse.

Since this is budget time in Columbus and Ohio has six institutions of higher learning drawing on taxpayers for support, it is timely to be reminded that Bowling Green, Kent, Miami, Ohio University, Ohio State University and Central State College are in the budget for close to 99½ million dollars — considerably less than they requested for the biennium but 100 million dollars to all intents and purposes.

This is a major item. It justifies major curiosity about educational policy — not that one article in one magazine has raised questions that no one ever raised before but that the author, who is on the faculty of Indiana State University, has raised questions that everybody has a right to raise when tax money is being spent.

Is there something wrong with admittance standards and performance requirements in tax-supported schools that may be causing taxpayers to put out substantial sums of money for the sake of education that simply cannot be shown to be producing any real education because "students" are not being required to do any real work?

Ohio taxpayers do not care whether there was a minor mixup in the identity of one of their tax-supported schools. They have a powerful financial reason to wonder if Jerome Ellison's question: "Are We making a Playground Out of College?" can be answered No in the case of Ohio's tax-supported colleges.

Girl Scouts Have A Birthday

It's the turn of district Girl Scouts to sing "Happy Birthday" as they join with others throughout the nation in marking the 47th anniverary of Girl Scouting.

The observance of Girl Scout Week will begin Sunday and continue through next Saturday.

With the anniversary theme, "You Can Count On Her To Be Creative," emphasis is being given to the arts, homemaking and service projects. Girl Scout leaders feel strongly that it is essential for every youngster to develop self - confidence and initiative as well as specific talents.

It's becoming fashionable these days to complain that American youth is not as vigorous or hard working as those behind the Iron Curtain. Girl Scout leaders feel the complaints are unjustified in most cases, with youngsters in Girl Scouting and other youth groups learning to grow up as alert, self-disciplined and useful citizens.

Last year, for example, a 17 - year - old Girl Scout won a national science award for her individual research work in astronomy. While not many Girl Scouts are likely to become astronomers, more than three and one half - million are learning how valuable our freedoms and traditions are. Even more important, they are learning that a democracy depends on citizens who are willing to serve their communities.

Not only the Scouts, but their adult leaders as well are to be congratulated on this 47th birthday. They not only are helping youngsters, but are serving their community and country as well.

Another Reminder

We once again have been reminded of the potentialities of East Liverpool in the economic future of the Upper Ohio Valley.

And included with the reminder was the usual caution that the "citizens must capitalize on this potential."

The advice came from Walter Myers, executive secretary of the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council, during Thursday's meeting of the city's schoolteachers. We need such a jolt every now and then as to our possibilities and our responsibilities.

For some time there has been a pleasant dream that someone, somehow would bring prosperity, better housing, better streets and many other needs.

But the harsh fact remains—whatever we gain must come through hard work and sacrifice, spurred by the confidence that success will be the end result. We apparently have no gushing oil wells, rich uranium deposits, or any other wealth to which we may fall heir. But we do have geographical position, skilled workers and many other advantages too often forgotten.

The recent attention focused on municipal problems has brought to many an awakening to reality. When the understanding of reality reaches the majority of citizens, East Liverpool should be able to get started down the trying but straight path of progress.

The Russians were charged with tolerating, if not engineering, the immigration of several thousand Romanian Jews into Israel. Because the Arabs fear a population-packed Israel might burst its borders, they have pressured Russia into promising that the immigration will cease.

THE CAIRO PROPAGANDA machine also is accusing the new Iraqi government of subservience to Communism.

When the revolution last July eliminated the pro-British and pro-American government of King Faisal and Premier Nuri Es-said, it was generally assumed that the succeeding regime would fall in with Nasser's plan for Arab unity. However, the new Iraqi ruler, Gen. Abdul Karim El - Kassem, has grown steadily away from cooperation with Nasser and latterly has seemed to be drifting instead toward reliance on Communists, including acceptance of military assistance from Russia.

American experts have no doubt as to prime Minister Kassem's distaste for any knuckling down to Nasser. But there is less acceptance of the notions either that Kassem is trending toward Communism or that he is anti-Western.

Kassem's main source of government revenue still is his nation's oil production, conducted mainly by the British. Until now that relationship has continued without visible conflict.

The British and American governments are at least hoping that Kassem's cozying up to Russia is mainly for the purpose of scaring off aggression by Egypt. And the Anglo-Saxon oil merchants are doing their level best to keep the Iraqi ruler financially content.

Showdown Delayed

Soviet Plays 'Dictator Diplomacy'

The Berlin crisis is running true to form. Just as it appears to be coming to a climax that could mean war, the Soviet bluffer-in-chief retreats a bit. This is the art of maneuvering, which is historically known as dictatorship diplomacy.

David Lawrence

The Soviet ruler now says that the May 27 deadline on forcing Western troops out of Berlin can be moved forward if "sensible negotiations" are under way with the Western powers. Prime Minister Macmillan is hailed as having won this important "concession" from Khrushchev during his recent visit to Moscow.

The moves in the chess game are all too palpable. The British prime minister has said that the West might even be willing to pull some of its troops away from West Germany provided the Russians pulled away from East Germany.

This is a form of "disengagement" which has been debated for many months. In essence, it means a retreat and withdrawal by the West in the face of Soviet pressure. It may not make the West Germans happy but it satisfies the peace-at-any-price sentiment inside Britain, where the British prime minister faces political opposition from the appeaser group all the time.

MEANWHILE, President Eisenhower at his press conference last week was careful not to criticize the British prime minister's mission or its results because, after all, the purpose of the visit was solely to elicit information as to the Kremlin ruler's attitude rather than to reach agreements. As a piece of probing of the other side's intentions, it was to some degree successful.

Mr. Macmillan can also retreat if need be when he finds the American, French and West German view to be in accord with the military recommendations of Gen. Norstad, commander of the NATO forces.

Military men of the West don't think it helps the morale of their forces to be withdrawing Allied troops from West Germany under pressure from Moscow.

Coincidentally in this country, the secretary of defense, Neil McElroy, at a news conference gave the impression that, far from retreating, the United States intends to advocate resistance by force should there be any attempt to compel the Allied troops to get out of Berlin in violation of the existing four-power wartime agreement.

Mr. McElroy said frankly that, if fighting breaks out over Berlin, he doesn't "quite see how you could avoid involving Russian forces," and that it would be "very difficult to keep at a limited war." He added that "We do not see ourselves fighting Russia" in anything that could be called a small war.

THE SECRETARY also remarked that, while there would be reluctance to use nuclear weapons, they certainly would be used if necessary but that he hoped that the friction over Berlin "would not get to the point where that kind of war action would be required."

So from one side comes the usual pressure to win concessions by threat - of - war and bluff tactics. From the other side comes the firm language of potential resistance so that the Soviets will not miscalculate and, in the belief that there would be no resistance at all, take some step that would bring on war.

One reason for the cockiness of the Soviets is the reported belief in the Kremlin that the American people voted against the Eisenhower administration in the 1958 elections and that in 1960 a Democratic administration is coming into power which will be favorable to Moscow.

This impression has been given by the public utterances of some Democratic members of Congress but it by no means reflects accurately the overwhelming sentiment of the Democratic party. There is every reason to believe that the majority in Congress are behind the administration in its firm policy.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER'S call of congressional leaders to a White House conference Friday to discuss the Berlin problem is designed, as was the National Security Council meeting last week, to disabuse the minds of the Russians that the American government is disunited on its policy of potential resistance to any forced withdrawal of Allied troops from Berlin.

There is, moreover, in Moscow at the moment the mistaken belief that the British viewpoint may tend to diverge from the American. This, too, is a fallacy, for, when the chips are down, it is most likely that the Western Allies will be found united.

In the face of such unity, the Soviet government may content itself with handing over paper sovereignty to the East German government and then asking the United Nations to settle the status of Berlin.

Such a development, while inconclusive, could at least avert a war and leave the ultimate disposition of Berlin to be negotiated over a long period of time.

One reason politics is so full of surprises is the tendency of politicians to carve up one another in family fights, as witness the surprise attack on the untouchable Sen. Johnson of Texas by Sen. Proxmire of Wisconsin, his political buddy.

The essential difference between alcoholics and the rest of us is that they are driven to drink by the things the rest of us keep saying will drive us to drink unless there is a change for the better. We keep hoping; the drunkard doesn't.

The most contemptuous expression we have for furtive favor-currying is "playing footsie." I remember the first game of footsie I ever played. It was in the high school library. Her name was Emma. She was ugly. But man, what feet!

It is unlikely there will be a change for the better as the result of the new line of inquiry by the McClellan investigators, but we're getting an idea who is behind the caterwauling on the juke boxes, the phonograph and our TV sets. They aren't music-lovers.

My idea of federal income tax reform is to put all taxpayers on the same footing, so big-shot taxpayers who can hire expensive lawyers can claim no more exemptions than stupid me. In other words, get rid of all exemptions, except those for dependents, charities, serious illness and legitimate business expenses. Not night clubs and race tracks, just legitimate expenses, like building and addition to the putty knife factory.

The newest drain on taxpayers is going to be a half-billion-dollar traffic control system for aviation, to make the air safe for high-speed planes. Did the government ever put up a dime for the railroads' traffic control system?

I wonder how many people understand what labor unions mean when they talk about shortening the work week — how many people understand that the purpose of shortening the work week is to lengthen the number of hours put in at premium rates for overtime.

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale

It's Never Too Late To Succeed

I am indebted to Mr. W. Alton Jones, chairman of the board of the Cities Service Co., for the biography of a "failure." This is how it reads:

Dr. Peale

"Failed in business '31; defeated for legislature '32; again failed in business '33; elected to legislature '34; defeated for speaker '38; defeated for elector '40; defeated for Congress '43; elected to Congress '46; defeated for Congress '48; defeated for Senate '55; defeated for vice president '56; defeated for Senate '58."

Obviously, this is the story of a man who, although his successes were few compared with a long record of failure, didn't stop trying. And his efforts were rewarded, because one other entry should be added to his biography: "Elected President '60."

HIS NAME, of course, was Abraham Lincoln and, only last month, on his birthday, people all over the world honored the memory of a great American who knew about the loss of faith or hope—and that it's never too late to succeed.

This principle of action is true because your failures can make you as well as break you. It all depends on how you take hold of them and what you make of them. James Russell Lowell once wrote, "Mishaps are like knives, that either serve us or cut us, as we grasp them by the blade or the handle." So, grasp it by the blade and you cut yourself; grasp it by the handle and you can use to get what you want in life.

And the Russians have a proverb I have always found worth remembering: "The hammer shatters glass, but forges steel." If you are brittle and delicate in your mind, your failures will shatter you and take away from you the strength to rise and fight again. But, if you have the stuff of steel in you, your failures will hammer out in you new strength and determination to win your way to success.

SUCCESS, after all, is the path of courage. James Barrie, in his famous essay on the subject of courage, quotes an old Scotch ballad that makes the point another way:

"Fight on, my men," says Sir Andrew Barton, "I am hurt, but I am not slain; I'll lie me down and bleed awhile, And then I'll rise and fight again."

The important thing to remember is that failure is a fact of life. None of us is able to succeed every time he tries.

I believe that God faces each of us with failure for a purpose. His purpose is to make men of us, strong men, even great men. And manhood, strength and greatness are achieved by learning to handle failure, learning to rise from it, learning to try again, learning that it's never too late to succeed.

Confident Living

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale

It's Never Too Late To Succeed

I am indebted to Mr. W. Alton Jones, chairman of the board of the Cities Service Co., for the biography of a "failure." This is how it reads:

Dr. Peale

"Failed in business '31; defeated for legislature '32; again failed in business '33; elected to legislature '34; defeated for speaker '38; defeated for elector '40; defeated for Congress '43; elected to Congress '46; defeated for Congress '48; defeated for Senate '55; defeated for vice president '56; defeated for Senate '58."

Obviously, this is the story of a man who, although his successes were few compared with a long record of failure, didn't stop trying. And his efforts were rewarded, because one other entry should be added to his biography: "Elected President '60."

—:—

HIS NAME, of course, was Abraham Lincoln and, only last month, on his birthday, people all over the world honored the memory of a great American who knew about the loss of faith or hope—and that it's never too late to succeed.

This principle of action is true because your failures can make you as well as break you. It all depends on how you take hold of them and what you make of them.

James Russell Lowell once wrote, "Mishaps are like knives, that either serve us or cut us, as we grasp them by the blade or the handle." So, grasp it by the blade and you cut yourself; grasp it by the handle and you can use to get what you want in life.

And the Russians have a proverb I have always found worth remembering: "The hammer shatters glass, but forges steel." If you are brittle and delicate in your mind, your failures will shatter you and take away from you the strength to rise and fight again. But, if you have the stuff of steel in you, your failures will hammer out in you new strength and determination to win your way to success.

—:—

SUCCESS, after all, is the path of courage. James Barrie, in his famous essay on the subject of courage, quotes an old Scotch ballad that makes the point another way:

"Fight on, my men," says Sir Andrew Barton, "I am hurt, but I am not slain; I'll lie me down and bleed awhile, And then I'll rise and fight again."

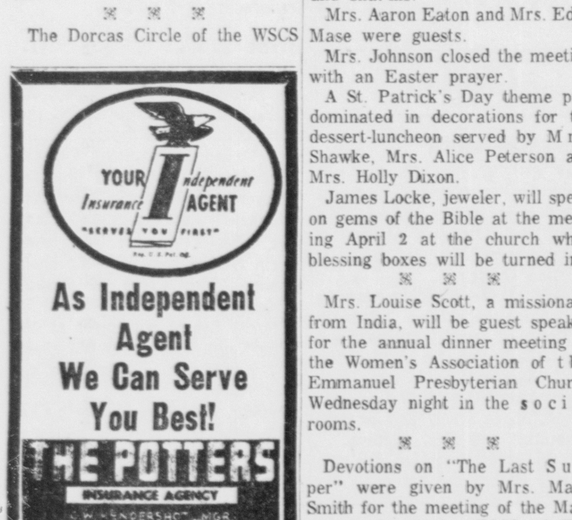

The important thing to remember is that failure is a fact of life. None of us is able to succeed every time he tries.

I believe that God faces each of us with failure for a purpose. His purpose is to make men of us, strong men, even great men. And manhood, strength and greatness are achieved by learning to handle failure, learning to rise from it, learning to try again, learning that it's never too late to succeed.

The Salvation Army

"WHAT IS THE SALVATION ARMY?"

"For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost." St. Luke 19:10

Since we will be commemorating the 79th Anniversary of The Salvation Army in the United States on Tuesday, March 10th., we thought it might be appropriate to quote herewith a paragraph relating to our charter embodied in the original certificate of incorporation.

This charter defines The Salvation Army as an organization "designed to operate as a religious and charitable corporation in all the States and Territories of the United States," and enumerates the following as its purposes: the spiritual, moral and physical reformation of all who need it; the reclamation of the vicious, criminal, dissolute and degraded; visitation among the poor and lowly and sick, and the preaching of the Gospel and the dissemination of Christian truth by means of Open-air and indoor meetings. The Act of Incorporation further authorizes the establishment of a wide variety of homes, bureaus and institutions within the scope of these general purposes, and the maintenance of such business activities and relationships as are essential so long as the profits or proceeds, if any, are devoted exclusively to religious and humanitarian pursuits.

As indicated in this legal definition, and as clearly set forth in every section of the Act, the ultimate purpose of all Salvation Army activities is to lead men and women into a proper understanding of their relationship to God, with a particular regard for the erring, the bewildered and the unfortunate. It endeavors to accomplish this through the teaching and practice of the religion of Christ. It is essentially an evangelical organization practicing its precepts through a vast system of social services.

The Salvation Army

"WHAT IS THE SALVATION ARMY?"

"For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost." St. Luke 19:10

Since we will be commemorating the 79th Anniversary of The Salvation Army in the United States on Tuesday, March 10th., we thought it might be appropriate to quote herewith a paragraph relating to our charter embodied in the original certificate of incorporation.

This charter defines The Salvation Army as an organization "designed to operate as a religious and charitable corporation in all the States and Territories of the United States," and enumerates the following as its purposes: the spiritual, moral and physical reformation of all who need it; the reclamation of the vicious, criminal, dissolute and degraded; visitation among the poor and lowly and sick, and the preaching of the Gospel and the dissemination of Christian truth by means of Open-air and indoor meetings. The Act of Incorporation further authorizes the establishment of a wide variety of homes, bureaus and institutions within the scope of these general purposes, and the maintenance of such business activities and relationships as are essential so long as the profits or proceeds, if any, are devoted exclusively to religious and humanitarian pursuits.

As indicated in this legal definition, and as clearly set forth in every section of the Act, the ultimate purpose of all Salvation Army activities is to lead men and women into a proper understanding of their relationship to God, with a particular regard for the erring, the bewildered and the unfortunate. It endeavors to accomplish this through the teaching and practice of the religion of Christ. It is essentially an evangelical organization practicing its precepts through a vast system of social services.

The Golden Eagles will meet Northwestern, 1958 Class "A" state champions, tonight at 8:30. Northwestern defeated Geneva Spencer, 50-43, to gain the finals.

Coach Bob Penrod's United team will have its work cut out for it. Northwestern was rated the No. 1 Class "A" team in the state this season and will carry a 22-2 record into tonight's game.

—:—

IN THE other bracket, Columbiana will meet Braceville at 7. The two winners will advance into Regional play, also slated for Canton.

In last night's United-Fairport contest, the Golden Eagles trailed, 9-2 at the end of the first period, but finally found the hoop in the second quarter and held a 14-13 edge at halftime.

The third quarter found United going ahead 25-19, then pulling farther away in the final period.

Jim Summer and Gary Lindesmith played key roles in last night's victory.

Summer was held to only three fouls in the first half, but pumped in the third and fourth quarters to help put United into tonight's finals.

Lindesmith scored 11 points, with 9 in the fourth quarter.

While Summer and Lindesmith pulled the game out of the fire in the second half, Lester Blanchard carried the load in the first and second periods. Blanchard finished with 11 points.

United had a bad first quarter, with Blanchard scoring the only field goal and the Eagles fell behind, 9-2.

United's offense picked up in the second half when the Eagles outscored Fairport, 12-4.

Summer opened the second quarter with three straight foul shots to bring the count to 9-5.

Fitzgibbons dropped in a field goal, but Jim Pike and Lindesmith tallied a foul each and Blanchard followed with a field goal to make it 11-9.

Fitzgibbons scored again, but Blanchard matched this and Pike hit on another foul to pull United within one, 13-12.

With 59 seconds left in the first half, Shagnot dropped in two foul shots and United went into the lead, 14-13.

Henry Werronen, a substitute, scored a fielder with six minutes left in the third period to knot the score at 16-16.

Fitzgibbons put Fairport ahead with a foul 17-16, but Blanchard hit on a jump shot with 4:47 left. United was in front to stay.

With Blanchard scoring five points and Summer four, the Eagles took a six-point margin 25-19 at the end of three periods.

The clincher came early in the fourth period after Summer and Jim Tomola exchanged goals. Lindesmith scored six straight points and within a minute's time had United out in front, 33-21.

This set the pattern for the remainder of the period and the Eagles won going away.

Ansted Wins 48th Straight

Parkersburg's Defending Champions Upset, 75-72

By The Associated Press

Defending small school champion Ansted moves into the Class A area playoffs but another defending champion—powerful Parkersburg—found itself today in the role of an observer at the state's Class AAA high school basketball tourney proceedings.

The Big Reds from Parkersburg were shocked, 75-72, last night by an unheralded Clarksburg Victory team in big school sectional play. The Eagles, coached by former West Virginia University cager Ken Alessi, had entered the contest with a 10-10 record.

Parkersburg, riding the crest of a 12-game winning streak for part of its 15-5 showing, was one of the prime tourney favorites.

The Eagles grabbed the lead at the outset, drove to a 46-28 halftime bulge then fended off a last-minute Parkersburg comeback for the upset.

The Big Reds, down 14 points in the fourth quarter, managed to deadlock the proceedings at 72-72 with two minutes left. But center Roger Diaz hit on a fielder and Roger Batson followed with a layup for the crusher. Diaz scored 28 points for game honors while Parkersburg's Mike Friend had 26.

Victory joined city rival Washington Irving and Moundsville in the march to the Region 1. Weirton and Triadelphia square off tonight for the other berth.

The rest of the AAA regional picture looks like this with all remaining sectional games set for tonight.

Reg. 2—Richwood plays Elkins for right to join Fairmont West, Martinsburg and Buckhannon in regional berths.

Reg. 3—Princeton and Welch already in. Beckley plays Madison and East Bank meets DuPont for the other two places.

Reg. 4—Huntington in St. Albans goes against Dunbar, South Charleston against Stonewall Jackson and Huntington East against Logan to round out the four-team competition.

Ansted racked up its 48th straight victory at the expense of Trap Hill to move into Class A area playoffs along with Williamson Liberty which bounced Huntington Douglass in regional finals.

The six other regional titles will be decided tonight with Sherrard vs. Williamstown in Reg. 1; Fairview vs. Glenville in Reg. 2; Rowlesburg vs. Masontown Valley in Reg. 3; Paw Paw vs. Piedmont in Reg. 4; White Sulphur Springs vs. Crichton in Reg. 5 and Athens vs. Greenville in Reg. 6.

As for Class AA — Follansbee, Clay-Battelle, Weston, Gassaway, Peterstown Lookout and Ceredeo Kenova have won their sections to gain regional berths.

Tonight's lineup of sectional championship games for the other places in the 16-team regionals includes:

New Martinsville vs. St. Marys, Spencer vs. Pt. Pleasant, Parsons vs. Kingwood, Romney vs. Keyser, Northfork-Elkhorn vs. Iaeger, Mullens vs. Pineville, Beckley Stratton vs. Marsh Fork, Sissonville vs. Poca and Matewan vs. Burch.

Big Ten Votes To Continue Rose Bowl Game Beyond '60

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—The Big Ten has cleared its decks for continuing in the Rose Bowl football game.

By a majority vote believed to be 6-4 or 7-3 the conference, which has won 12 of the last 13 Pasadena New Years Day classics, flashed the green light for continuation beyond the 1960 game.

The exploratory ballot was taken by faculty representatives and athletic directors in their annual spring meeting Friday. The matter now must go before each Big Ten faculty council for certification and then be voted on officially in the conference's meetings at the University of Michigan, May 21-23.

The vote of sentiment makes way for the Association of Western Universities, successor to the Paciifc Coast Conference and the Tournament of Roses Committee, to issue a formal Rose Bowl invitation. It is believed this has not yet been done because the Big Ten first had to clear the air on how it stood.

"We presume that the AWU and Tournament of Roses stand ready to negotiate a new Rose Bowl contract," said Asst. Big Ten Commissioner Bill Reed.

The PCC served notice on the Big Ten last August that its indefinite term Rose Bowl contract would expire because the PCC dissolves officially this June 1. The 1960 game will be played under a contractural trusteeship of the PCC.

The AWU consists of Southern California, Washington, UCLA and California.

3 Ohio Class A Teams Suffer First Defeats

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Three Class A teams suffered their first losses of the season Friday night as district tournaments cut a wide swath through Ohio's high school basketball talent.

Belted for the first time were Geneva Spencer, the state's third-ranked club in the final Associated Press poll; Xenia Woodrow Wilson, fifth in the ratings, and Old Washington, which boasted the longest streak of 26 in a row.

Defending champion Northwestern of Wayne County ousted Geneva Spencer by 50-43, running its record to 22-2. Xenia Woodrow Wilson was victimized 59-57 by Camden Shawnee after winning 18, and Old Washington dropped a 63-64 overtime tilt to Maysville (18-6).

The losses dropped Geneva Spencer and Woodrow Wilson from the fight, but Old Washington gets another chance. Old Washington meets Conotton Valley, loser to Midvale at Dover, in a runoff game today at Granville to decide which goes on to the Canton regional.

Midvale, Maysville, New Boston, Racine, Lynnwood - Jacksontown and Pickerington won their way into regional play Friday night in Class A, while Middletown's eternal threats and Cincinnati St. Xavier made it in Class AA.

The Middies led Princeton 4-2 at the quarter and 16-15 at the half before snatching a 44-41 victory for their 15th district championship in the last 17 years. They have gone on to win the state title seven of the last 15 seasons.

Ten Class A and 14 Class AA district finals are on tap tonight, with all winners advancing to Regional tournaments next week. The "Sweet 16" in each division will battle it out for four state tourney berths here March 20-21.

With three teams suffering their first losses Friday night, the unsullied array in Class A was slashed to four. Only three are unbeaten among the larger schools —Cleveland East Tech's defending champions (20), Elyria (22) and Akron Central (18).

Two of the unbeaten Class A teams, Racine (25) and New Boston (22), advanced to the Athens tourney from which only one can emerge. Other Class A unbeatens are Convoy-Union (25) and Salem Local (24). The latter faces a toughie in Sidney Holy Angels (24-1) tonight at Springfield.

Akron St. Mary, winner of the Class A title in 1929, lost its bid for the Class AA crown Friday night as it was eliminated 58-46 by Kent Roosevelt.

With the Class AA field of 412 slashed to 30, six of the top ten in the final Associated Press poll are still on hand. Five of the top ten in Class A are still around, although the field of 601 has been cut to 26.

New Cumberland Bows, 78-71, To Williamstown In Tourney

New Cumberland High's Raiders bowed out of the tournament action Friday night when defeated by Williamstown, 78-71, in the opening round of West Virginia Class B Region 1-A grind at Williamstown, near Parkersburg.

The Hancock County squad, which copped the Section 1 crown by upsetting Bethany and then whipping Newell, trailed most of the way in being ushered to the sidelines.

Williamstown, now 19-4 for the year, pulled in front by two points after the first quarter, and then vaulted into a 12 - point lead at halftime, 43-31.

The lead eventually proved too much for Coach Charlie Miller's dribblers to overcome, although they closed with a flurry.

New Cumberland actually lost the game at the foul stripe as the Raiders outscored Williamstown in field goal production, 32-31. New Cumberland snared 7 points at the foul line and the winners 16.

The defeat left New Cumberland with a 10-12 season record. Three New Cumberland cagers posted double figures in the defeat, with Jerry Pierce meshing 24, Phil Cullen 18 and Bill Freshour 13.

Gary Miracle led the scoring parade for Williamstown by dropping in 23 points.

130 Listed As Eligibles In 85th Kentucky Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) —Three high-ranking colts and a gelding with 66 owners are among the 130 thoroughbreds listed today as eligibles for the Kentucky Derby.

Four fillies, including undefeated Silver Spoon, also are entered for the 85th running of the $125,000 added classic at Churchill Downs on May 2.

The number of candidates in the mile and a quarter test is 10 less than in 1958. A Downs spokesman said, however, that "when a 2-year-old campaign produces such stars as First Landing and Tomy Lee, nominations usually run between 120 and 125."

Both are expected to have strong competition from Troilus, who humbled First Landing recently in the Flamingo Stakes. Troilus, purchased by Delaware banker Bayard Sharp for $9,000, already has banked more than $100,000 this year.

The first horse nominated was Gen. Darby, owned by the Go-for-Broke Corp. of Louisville. Its 66 shareholders put up $100 each and purchased the gelding at auction in 1957 for $1,500. Gen. Darby has earned $1,825, most of it coming from the one claiming race he captured in July, 1958.

C. V. Whitney is counting on Silver Spoon, a daughter of Citation, to crack the filly jinx.

Only one, Regret in 1915, has ever won the Derby and she raced under the colors of Whitney's father.

Other fillies nominated: Dr. D. R. Munroe's Dralia; Leo Weinberger's Southern Ami; and Miss Newcastle from the Selima Stable.

A filly hasn't run in the derby since 1945 when Misweet finished twelfth.

Silver Spoon, winner of three straight stakes, was tabbed a favorite for Saturday's running of the $100,000 Santa Anita Derby.

East Palestine Coach Takes College Post

William Mallory, who guided East Palestine High School's football team to an undefeated, untied season in 1958, has accepted a coaching position at Bowling Green State University, effective immediately, Supt. T. R. Hersh announced.

Mallory, a graduate of Miami University where he was an outstanding end, came to East Palestine three years ago from Bowling Green where he received his master's degree.

In his first year as head coach of the Bulldogs in 1958, the squad finished with a 9-0-0 record, rolling up 282 points to only 76 by the opposition.

The young coach will join the varsity staff of the Falcons' head grid mentor, Doyt Perry. Along with his coaching duties at East Palestine, Mallory taught history and government in the high school grades.

His wife taught music in the elementary system. The opening at Bowling Green developed only recently when an assistant coach accepted a position at the University of Michigan.

The school superintendent said the initial phases of Mallory's new assignment will require him to leave for Bowling Green at least next week.

Chester Star Picked On All-Tourney Team

Chester's Dave Brookes, a leading contender for All-West Virginia Class AA basketball honors, was named to the Section 1 all - tournament squad Friday night. The 5-10 senior guard, who piled up a total of 411 points this year, was awarded a trophy for making the tournament team when announced last night at the Follansbee gymnasium. Chester lost its tournament opener to Benwood Union, with Brookes closing out his career with a 27 - point splurge.

Big Ten Votes To Continue Rose Bowl Game Beyond '60

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—The Big Ten has cleared its decks for continuing in the Rose Bowl football game.

By a majority vote believed to be 6-4 or 7-3 the conference, which has won 12 of the last 13 Pasadena New Years Day classics, flashed the green light for continuation beyond the 1960 game.

The exploratory ballot was taken by faculty representatives and athletic directors in their annual spring meeting Friday. The matter now must go before each Big Ten faculty council for certification and then be voted on officially in the conference's meetings at the University of Michigan, May 21-23.

The vote of sentiment makes way for the Association of Western Universities, successor to the Paciifc Coast Conference and the Tournament of Roses Committee, to issue a formal Rose Bowl invitation. It is believed this has not yet been done because the Big Ten first had to clear the air on how it stood.

"We presume that the AWU and Tournament of Roses stand ready to negotiate a new Rose Bowl contract," said Asst. Big Ten Commissioner Bill Reed.

The PCC served notice on the Big Ten last August that its indefinite term Rose Bowl contract would expire because the PCC dissolves officially this June 1. The 1960 game will be played under a contractural trusteeship of the PCC.

The AWU consists of Southern California, Washington, UCLA and California.

Kentucky Derby Threat May Show In California Run

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP) — The Santa Anita Derby has produced three colts who went on to win the Kentucky Derby.

So California race fans are hoping another top threat for the Bluegrass classic will emerge in the 22nd running today of Santa Anita's feature for 3-year-olds.

Most of the top flight entries in todays' mile and one-eighth race are eligible for the Kentucky Derby.

Included are C. V. Whitney's unbeaten filly, Silver Spoon, and Neil S. Mc Carthy's entry of Finnegan and Ole Fols.

Only once has a filly won either the Santa Anita or Kentucky Derby. Regret, owned by the late Harry Payne Whitney, father of Silver Spoon's owner, won in Kentucky in 1915. The King Ranch's Ciencia won the Santa Anita feature in 1939.

Today's race, based on 12 starters, boasts a gross purse of $150,300.

Entered are Linmold, Royal Orbit, Mr. Deep Well, Fightin Indian, Jungle Dancer, Prince Lewker, Friar Roach, Die Hard, Tuleg and the top rated Silver Spoon, Finnegan and Ole Fols.

3 Ohio Class A Teams Suffer First Defeats

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Three Class A teams suffered their first losses of the season Friday night as district tournaments cut a wide swath through Ohio's high school basketball talent.

Belted for the first time were Geneva Spencer, the state's third-ranked club in the final Associated Press poll; Xenia Woodrow Wilson, fifth in the ratings, and Old Washington, which boasted the longest streak of 26 in a row.

Defending champion Northwestern of Wayne County ousted Geneva Spencer by 50-43, running its record to 22-2. Xenia Woodrow Wilson was victimized 59-57 by Camden Shawnee after winning 18, and Old Washington dropped a 68-64 overtime tilt to Maysville (18-6).

The losses dropped Geneva Spencer and Woodrow Wilson from the fight, but Old Washington gets another chance. Old Washington meets Conotton Valley, loser to Midvale at Dover, in a runoff game today at Granville to decide which goes on to the Canton regional.

Midvale, Maysville, New Boston, Racine, Lynnwood - Jacksontown and Pickerington won their way into regional play Friday night in Class A, while Middletown's eternal threats and Cincinnati St. Xavier made it in Class AA.

The Middies led Princeton 4-2 at the quarter and 16-15 at the half before snatching a 44-41 victory for their 15th district championship in the last 17 years. They have gone on to win the state title seven of the last 15 seasons.

Ten Class A and 14 Class AA district finals are on tap tonight, with all winners advancing to Regional tournaments next week. The "Sweet 16" in each division will battle it out for four state tourney berths here March 20-21.

With three teams suffering their first losses Friday night, the unsullied array in Class A was slashed to four. Only three are unbeaten among the larger schools —Cleveland East Tech's defending champions (20), Elyria (22) and Akron Central (18).

Two of the unbeaten Class A teams, Racine (25) and New Boston (22), advanced to the Athens tourney from which only one can emerge. Other Class A unbeatens are Convoy-Union (25) and Salem Local (24). The latter faces a toughie in Sidney Holy Angels (24-1) tonight at Springfield.

Akron St. Mary, winner of the Class A title in 1929, lost its bid for the Class AA crown Friday night as it was eliminated 58-46 by Kent Roosevelt.

With the Class AA field of 412 slashed to 30, six of the top ten in the final Associated Press poll are still on hand. Five of the top ten in Class A are still around, although the field of 601 has been cut to 26.

Salem Breezes, 83-61; Faces Chaney Tonight

Salem High's sizzling Quakers are primed for a showdown battle with powerful Youngstown Chaney tonight in the District Class AA finals at Youngstown, advancing from the semifinals Friday night by dumping Woodrow Wilson, 83-61.

It will be a struggle between two of northeastern Ohio's most highly touted squads, each showing impressive season records.

Coach John Cabas' Quakers, now 22-1 after splurging in the third period to zoom away easily from Woodrow Wilson, must get by the Chaney Cowboys (22-1) tonight to remain eligible for Regional play.

Tipoff time is 8:15 tonight in the South Field House at Youngstown. The winner of tonight's game advances to the Kent Regionals.

Dave Hunter sparked Salem's victory over Wilson by pumping in 22 points. Woody Deitch, Salem's All-Ohio candidate, posted 16, and Dan Kritchbaum had 14.

Salem led by only 10 points at halftime, but exploded in the third period to pull away to a 27-point lead and won easily. Rich Hovanec scored 22 points for the losers.

New Cumberland Bows, 78-71, To Williamstown In Tourney

New Cumberland High's Raiders bowed out of the tournament action Friday night when defeated by Williamstown, 78-71, in the opening round of West Virginia Class B Region 1-A grind at Williamstown, near Parkersburg.

The Hancock County squad, which copped the Section 1 crown by upsetting Bethany and then whipping Newell, trailed most of the way in being ushered to the sidelines.

Williamstown, now 19-4 for the year, pulled in front by two points after the first quarter, and then vaulted into a 12 - point lead at halftime, 43-31.

The lead eventually proved too much for Coach Charlie Miller's dribblers to overcome, although they closed with a flurry.

New Cumberland actually lost the game at the foul stripe as the Raiders outscored Williamstown in field goal production, 32-31. New Cumberland snared 7 points at the foul line and the winners 16.

The defeat left New Cumberland with a 10-12 season record. Three New Cumberland cagers posted double figures in the defeat, with Jerry Pierce meshing 24, Phil Cullen 18 and Bill Freshour 13.

Gary Miracle led the scoring parade for Williamstown by dropping in 23 points.

130 Listed As Eligibles In 85th Kentucky Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) —Three high-ranking colts and a gelding with 66 owners are among the 130 thoroughbreds listed today as eligibles for the Kentucky Derby.

Four fillies, including undefeated Silver Spoon, also are entered for the 85th running of the $125,000 added classic at Churchill Downs on May 2.

The number of candidates in the mile and a quarter test is 10 less than in 1958. A Downs spokesman said, however, that "when a 2-year-old campaign produces such stars as First Landing and Tomy Lee, nominations usually run between 120 and 125."

Both are expected to have strong competition from Troilus, who humbled First Landing recently in the Flamingo Stakes. Troilus, purchased by Delaware banker Bayard Sharp for $9,000, already has banked more than $100,000 this year.

The first horse nominated was Gen. Darby, owned by the Go-for-Broke Corp. of Louisville. Its 66 shareholders put up $100 each and purchased the gelding at auction in 1957 for $1,500. Gen. Darby has earned $1,825, most of it coming from the one claiming race he captured in July, 1958.

C. V. Whitney is counting on Silver Spoon, a daughter of Citation, to crack the filly jinx.

Only one, Regret in 1915, has ever won the Derby and she raced under the colors of Whitney's father.

Other fillies nominated: Dr. D. R. Munroe's Dralia; Leo Weinberger's Southern Ami; and Miss Newcastle from the Selima Stable.

A filly hasn't run in the derby since 1945 when Misweet finished twelfth.

Silver Spoon, winner of three straight stakes, was tabbed a favorite for Saturday's running of the $100,000 Santa Anita Derby.

East Palestine Coach Takes College Post

William Mallory, who guided East Palestine High School's football team to an undefeated, untied season in 1958, has accepted a coaching position at Bowling Green State University, effective immediately, Supt. T. R. Hersh announced.

Mallory, a graduate of Miami University where he was an outstanding end, came to East Palestine three years ago from Bowling Green where he received his master's degree.

In his first year as head coach of the Bulldogs in 1958, the squad finished with a 9-0-0 record, rolling up 282 points to only 76 by the opposition.

The young coach will join the varsity staff of the Falcons' head grid mentor, Doyt Perry. Along with his coaching duties at East Palestine, Mallory taught history and government in the high school grades.

His wife taught music in the elementary system. The opening at Bowling Green developed only recently when an assistant coach accepted a position at the University of Michigan.

The school superintendent said the initial phases of Mallory's new assignment will require him to leave for Bowling Green at least next week.

Chester Star Picked On All-Tourney Team

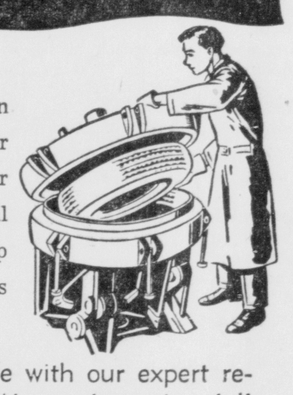

Chester's Dave Brookes, a leading contender for All-West Virginia Class AA basketball honors, was named to the Section 1 all - tournament squad Friday night. The 5-10 senior guard, who piled up a total of 411 points this year, was awarded a trophy for making the tournament team when announced last night at the Follansbee gymnasium. Chester lost its tournament opener to Benwood Union, with Brookes closing out his career with a 27 - point splurge.

Add North Carolina, Utah, California, Boston University and—this time officially—Denver to the post-season major college basketball tournament fields.

North Carolina, Utah, California and Boston U. wrapped up NCAA berths in Friday developments—Cal and Boston without lifting a finger. At the same time, Denver's position for the National Invitation Tournament was clarified by a loss to Brigham Young that eliminated the Pioneers from the Skyline Conference race.

North Carolina moves into the NCAA Eastern Regional at New York next Tuesday against Navy after whipping Duke 74-71 Friday night to reach the finals of the Atlantic Coast Conference's title tournament. Frank McGuire's Tar Heels, 1957 National Collegiate champs, meet North Carolina State in tonight's ACC final at Raleigh but with State on NCAA probation, the result has no bearing on the NCAA berth. State won its semifinal over Virginia 66-63.

Utah, qualifying for the NCAA Far West regional at San Francisco March 13, nailed its fourth Skyline championship with an 85-73 victory over Wyoming. The Utes' victory plus Denver's 72-67 loss to Brigham Young cleared the situation into which Denver fell with its acceptance of an NIT bid Thursday. That touched off a verbal tug of war in which the Skyline said it would hold Denver to its obligation to play in the NCAA tourney in case it caught Utah.

Boston U. joined the NCAA field as an at-large entry and will play Connecticut's Yankee Conference champions at New York in a first round game Tuesday. California has its tournament berth a day ahead of schedule—thanks to its Los Angeles branch. UCLA knocked runner-up Washington out of the Pacific Coast Conference scrambling, 56-55 and gave Cal its third straight title. The Bears will play Utah in the Far West regional.

The big tournament fields now are nearly completed—and can be all but filled within the next 24 hours.

Four berths are vacant in the 23-team NCAA line-up and two will be settled today in a pair of playoffs. One this afternoon matched Miami of Ohio and Bowling Green at Dayton for the Mid-American Conference title. Tonight, Dartmouth and Princeton play off their Ivy League tie at New Haven, Conn., with the winner advancing to Tuesday's New York tripleheader against West Virginia, champion of the Southern Conference.

Cincinnati needed a victory over Bradley in the afternoon national TV, NBC, game for the Missouri Valley NCAA berth. A Bradley loss would make the Bears the 12th and last team in the NIT opening next Thursday in New York.

It'll take until Monday night, however, to unscramble the fourth NCAA vacancy, the one belonging to the Border Conference. The race ended in a three-way tie. Tonight Texas Western plays New Mexico State at El Paso with the winner facing Arizona State U. for the NCAA nomination Monday night.

Martin Idled By Virus For Indians' Game

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Second baseman Billy Martin, weak from a virus infection, is the only member of the Cleveland Indians not available as the Tribe plays its first exhibition game of the season here this afternoon against the San Francisco Giants.

Manager Joe Gordon said he would be replaced by Ray Webster, a 21-year-old infielder drafted from Sacramento and one of the most impressive newcomers in the Indians' camp.

Southpaw Herb Score and right handers Mike Garcia and Al Cicotte were given the pitching assignment for the Indians with each scheduled for three innings. Cicotte was hit on the left knee by a line drive in an intrasquad game Tuesday, but has fully recovered.

"We're going all out to win it," Gordon said. "Exhibition games may not be important, but I want the club to get in the habit of winning."

Gordon said he had never seen a team in better physical condition at this point of spring training.

"We haven't had a serious injury, not even a sore arm," he said. "It's remarkable. I only hope we're in the same condition going into the regular season."

Play Seen Death Cause

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Summit County deputies believe a game of make believe killed nine-year-old Jim Wilson Friday night. The boy, a clothesline knotted around his neck, was found hanging from a rafter in the basement of his Copley Township home. His father, David, discovered the body. Deputies said the boy, alone in the basement, probably was playing the part of a hanged man when he tumbled off a chair and strangled.

Spartans Nail Lead In Big 10 Swim Classic

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—A record - busting tear by Tony Tashnick that included 2 new America times helped jump Michigan far in the front today in the 49th annual Big Ten swimming championships.

Michigan had 80 points with nine finals and seven to go this afternoon. The defending champion Wolverines were certain to top the current point high of 129 by Ohio State in the 1951 conference champhionships.

Ohio State, mostly because of a monopoly on the diving, was second with 40 points. Indians was third with 36 and Michigan State fourth with 29. Other point totals: Iowa 19, Illinois and Wisconsin 7 and Minnesota 2. Northwestern and Purdue were shut out.

Tashnick won the first individual event of Friday night's finals—the 200-yard butterfly — and the last—the 200-yard individual medley.

His butterfly time was 2:02.2, bettering the American mark of 2:03.8 by William Yorzyk of the New Haven Swim Club in 1956.

Hid medley time of 2:06.5 clipped three-tenths off his afternoon's qualifying time of 2:06.8. This in turn bettered the former American mark of 2:07.5 by Al Wiggins of Ohio State in 1957. Both of his winning times also were new NCAA and Big Ten records.

Ohio State had a monopoly on the one-meter diving. Sam Hall was the winner with 488.5 points and Ron O'Brien was second with 485.45. Joseph Gerlach of Michigan finished third with 463.35.

Ex-Marine's 68 Leads In Orleans Open

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Baltimore's Bill Collins heeded a bit of advice from a friendly rival on professional golf's winter tour and converted it into a one-stroke lead today in the $20,000 New Orleans Open.

Collins, a 230-pound former Marine and taxi driver, came in with a four-under-par 68 Friday and led the field at the end of the first round over the soggy 6,700-yard City Park course.

The near flawless performance gave Collins a slim lead over such tested opponents as defending PGA Champion Dow Finsterwald, Jim Turnesa of Elmsford, N.Y., Ernie Vossler of Midland, Tex., and comparative newcomer Dick Knight of San Diego, Calif., all with 69s.

Lloyd Mangrum of Apple Valley, Calif., who won tournament in 1942, headed a 10-man group tied with 70s.

The field for the final two rounds on Sunday and Monday will include the low 60 scorers and ties, plus the 10 leading amateurs, after today's second round.

Collins was ready to throw in the sponge because of his recent poor play and said he had planned to quit the tour after the New Orleans tourney.

"I was making too many mistakes and just couldn't find the answer," he told an interviewer. "But Bill Johnston spotted the major fault when we arrived in New Orleans and, boy, did he straighten me out."

Collins explained his putting was poor because he wasn't following through on his swing. Johnston gave Collins the advice he needed. Collins used only 30 putts — 32 constitutes a good putting round—in Friday's performance.

Redl, Jordan Fight To Draw

NEW YORK (AP)—A fight that didn't have much significance stirred up a mild rhubarb today.

Stefan Redl, a stocky, 5-5 welterweight from Passaic, N.J., and unbeaten Eddie Jordan, a skinny 5-10 newcomer from Brooklyn, battled to a draw in a television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden Friday night. Jordan rallied strongly to gain the tie.

The verdict made Redl and his manager, Carl Duva, howling mad. It made Jordan happy.

Duva was so burned up after the decision was announced that he tore across the ring, hollering with every step:

"Where's the commissioner? What kind of a decision is that?"

Somewhat calmed down later, Duva said he planned to protest to the commission Monday but not over the decision.

"I'm going to protest the handling of the fight by Referee Al Berl," he said. "I'm not going to protest the decision although Redl won decisively. Every time the referee broke them he threw Redl across the ring."

Berl voted for Jordan, 6-4. Judge Artie Schwartz had Redl ahead, 7-2-1. Judge Bill Recht had it exactly even, 4-4-2 and four points for each. The AP card had Redl in front, 6-4.

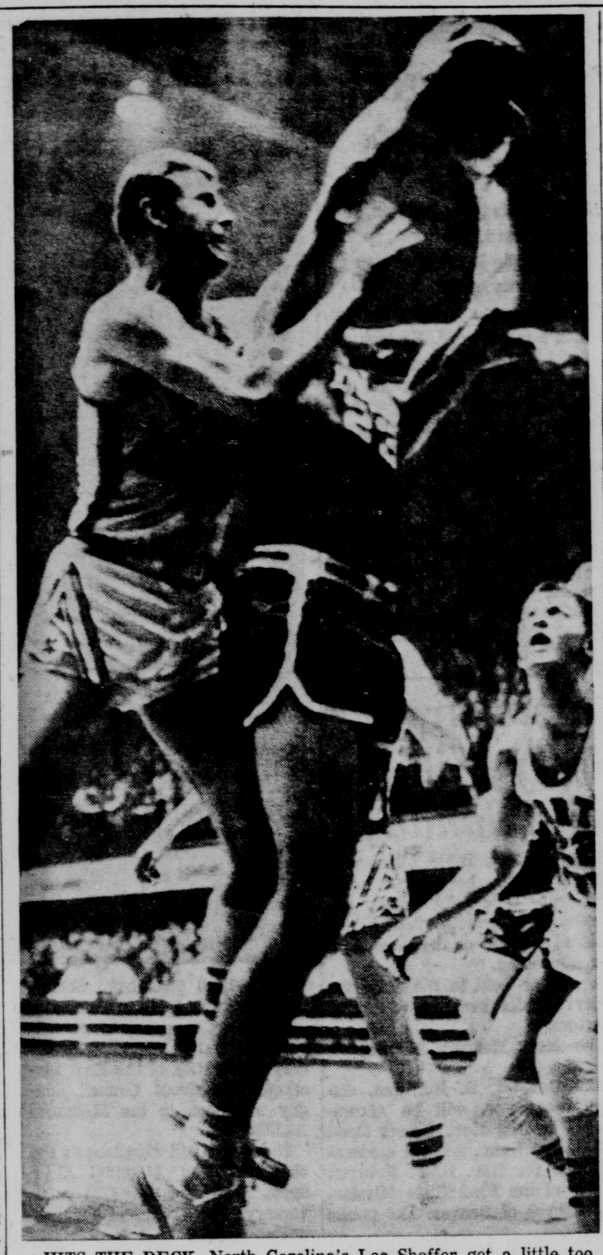

The draw was a good break for the 23-year-old Jordan, subbing for injured Gaspar Ortega. The bout marked his Garden and national television debut and the result stretched his unbeaten record to 16 and three draws. Redl's record is 22-3-1.

Fish And Game Group Will Convene Monday

LISBON—The Columbiana County Fish and Game Association will meet Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the Village Hall.

Plans will be discussed for the ham and turkey shoot to be held Sunday, March 15, at the club's range east of Elkton. Shooters with muzzle - loading rifles and shotguns will be eligible.

American League pitchers feel good about pitching in Baltimore because outfielders have plenty of room to roam under long fly balls.

HITS THE DECK. North Carolina's Lee Shaffer got a little too eager and Duke's Carroll Youngkin (23) hit the floor. Carolina's York Larese (22) watched the action as referee's whistle blows to give Youngkin two free shots. Action took place in the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament at Raleigh, N. C., Friday night. Carolina won. (UPI Telephoto)

Klu Claims He's Ready To Be Bucs First Sacker

By JIM KENSIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ted Kluszewski, as famed for his bad back as his big bat, says he's in shape and ready to be the Pittsburgh Pirates' regular first baseman.

Dick Stuart, who took Klu's job last season, says if he plays regularly and hits 30 homers the Pirates will win the National League pennant.

Rocky Nelson, a minor league phenom who has flopped six times in the majors, says he'd like to help the Pirates in some category.

Manager Danny Murtaugh ain't sayin'.

But it's a safe bet that one of these three first basemen is the man Murtaugh is expecting to make up for the batting power Frank Thomas took with him to Cincinnati. The right-handed Thomas, traded for left-handed pitching strength, homered 35 times for the Pirates and had 109 RBI.

The Pirates, as well as the other 15 major league clubs, opened the exhibition season today in Florida and Arizona.

And at Ft. Myers, Fla., where the Pirates entertained Milwaukee, Braves Manager Fred Haney was to take a good look at Casey Wise and Chuck Cottier.

They are two of seven assorted infielders seeking the second base job left glaringly vacant when Red Schoendienst was hospitalized with tuberculosis.

Haney placed Wise and Cottier on the traveling squad, one of two equal Brave training units.

Other exhibition openers today were Cincinnati vs. Chicago White Sox at Tampa, Philadelphia vs. Los Angeles at Sarasota, St. Louis vs. New York at St. Petersburg, Chicago Cubs vs. Boston at Mesa, San Francisco vs. Cleveland at Tucson, Baltimore vs. Kansas City at West Palm Beach and Detroit vs. Washington at Orlando.

Arizin Boosts Point Production To Personal High

By The Associated Press

Paul Arizin's point production is going up and up in the National Basketball Assn.

The veteran Philadelphia Warrior notched 38 points Friday night against the Syracuse Nationals to bring his season total to 1,827, a personal all-time high.

Philadelphia won the game, 118-114.

Arizin's best previous mark was 1,817 which he compiled two years ago when he led the league in scoring.

Arizin had 18 field goals and two foul shots in leading the Warriors to their victory. Togo Palazzi was high man for the losers with 37 points.

In the only other game, the Minneapolis Lakers clinched second place in the Western division, 99-98 over the Detroit Pistons.

The defeat also eliminated the Pistons in the battle for second place in the division.

Larry Foust was top scorer for the winners with 23 points.

NEW YORK (Madison Square Garden)—Stefan Redl, 146½, Paterson, N.J., and Eddie Jordan, 143½, Brooklyn, drew, 10.

Most one - sided series in the National League last season was the one between Milwaukee and Cincinnati. The Braves beat the Redlegs 17 times in 22 games.

Redlegs Start 'Final Exams' For Hopefuls

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Final exams start today for ambitious rookies, aging veterans and other uncertain candidates for steady jobs with Cincinnati's Reds.

It's the first exhibition game of spring training, with the Chicago's White Sox furnishing the opposition.

And manager Mayo Smith, who must decide who made the grade, admits the task can be baffling.

He said Friday, "We'll have to wait until we play a dozen or so exhibition games and even then we may go wrong."

The lineup in today's game gives an idea of the men Smith must study.

Jim O'Toole, 20-game winner with Nashville last year, opens on the mound for three innings. Ted Weiand, still a rookie at age 25, will pitch the middle innings and Tom Acker, who was 4-3 with Cincinnati last season, is slated to finish up.

Johnny Powers, a throw-in player in a deal with Pittsburgh, has shown unusual talent for slugging here at spring training and will start in left field. The center field berth goes to Vada Pinson, the speedy Californian who went to Seattle last season for more seasoning. Buddy Gilbert, whose hitting ran hot and cold for Nashville last year, holds down right field.

Dutch Dotterer, a capable catcher but no great shakes at hitting, will start behind the plate.

The rest of the Reds' starters are regulars: second baseman Johnny Temple, shortstop Roy McMillan, first sacker Frank Robinson and third baseman Frank Thomas, a slugger acquired in a deal with Pittsburgh.

O'Brien-Long Duel May Bring Shot Record

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The world shotput record was endangered today as champion Parry O'Brien and challenger Dallas Long, freshman at the University of Southern California, competed in the same meet.

The two were feature—O'Brien in the open division and Long in the collegiate — at the Southern Pacific AAU track and field meet at East Los Angeles Junior College.

A week ago Long, from Phoenix, Ariz., electrified spectators — and O'Brien—with a throw measured unofficially at 63 feet 4 inches.

O'Brien quickly changed into a track suit and got off a put of 64 feet and better.

Neither could be considered as a record because the terrain sloped at the point of landing. O'Brien holds the accepted world mark of 63 feet 2 inches.

4 More Gain College Cage Tourney Play

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Add North Carolina, Utah, California, Boston University and—this time officially—Denver to the post-season major college basketball tournament fields.

North Carolina, Utah, California and Boston U. wrapped up NCAA berths in Friday developments—Cal and Boston without lifting a finger. At the same time, Denver's position for the National Invitation Tournament was clarified by a loss to Brigham Young that eliminated the Pioneers from the Skyline Conference race.

North Carolina moves into the NCAA Eastern Regional at New York next Tuesday against Navy after whipping Duke 74-71 Friday night to reach the finals of the Atlantic Coast Conference's title tournament. Frank McGuire's Tar Heels, 1957 National Collegiate champs, meet North Carolina State in tonight's ACC final at Raleigh but with State on NCAA probation, the result has no bearing on the NCAA berth. State won its semifinal over Virginia 66-63.

Utah, qualifying for the NCAA Far West regional at San Francisco March 13, nailed its fourth Skyline championship with an 85-73 victory over Wyoming. The Utes' victory plus Denver's 72-67 loss to Brigham Young cleared the situation into which Denver fell with its acceptance of an NIT bid Thursday. That touched off a verbal tug of war in which the Skyline said it would hold Denver to its obligation to play in the NCAA tourney in case it caught Utah.

Boston U. joined the NCAA field as an at-large entry and will play Connecticut's Yankee Conference champions at New York in a first round game Tuesday. California has its tournament berth a day ahead of schedule—thanks to its Los Angeles branch. UCLA knocked runner-up Washington out of the Pacific Coast Conference scrambling, 56-55 and gave Cal its third straight title. The Bears will play Utah in the Far West regional.

The big tournament fields now are nearly completed—and can be all but filled within the next 24 hours.

Four berths are vacant in the 23-team NCAA line-up and two will be settled today in a pair of playoffs. One this afternoon matched Miami of Ohio and Bowling Green at Dayton for the Mid-American Conference title. Tonight, Dartmouth and Princeton play off their Ivy League tie at New Haven, Conn., with the winner advancing to Tuesday's New York tripleheader against West Virginia, champion of the Southern Conference.

Cincinnati needed a victory over Bradley in the afternoon national TV, NBC, game for the Missouri Valley NCAA berth. A Bradley loss would make the Bears the 12th and last team in the NIT opening next Thursday in New York.

It'll take until Monday night, however, to unscramble the fourth NCAA vacancy, the one belonging to the Border Conference. The race ended in a three-way tie. Tonight Texas Western plays New Mexico State at El Paso with the winner facing Arizona State U. for the NCAA nomination Monday night.

Martin Idled By Virus For Indians' Game

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Second baseman Billy Martin, weak from a virus infection, is the only member of the Cleveland Indians not available as the Tribe plays its first exhibition game of the season here this afternoon against the San Francisco Giants.

Manager Joe Gordon said he would be replaced by Ray Webster, a 21-year-old infielder drafted from Sacramento and one of the most impressive newcomers in the Indians' camp.

Southpaw Herb Score and right handers Mike Garcia and Al Cicotte were given the pitching assignment for the Indians with each scheduled for three innings. Cicotte was hit on the left knee by a line drive in an intrasquad game Tuesday, but has fully recovered.

"We're going all out to win it," Gordon said. "Exhibition games may not be important, but I want the club to get in the habit of winning."

Gordon said he had never seen a team in better physical condition at this point of spring training.

"We haven't had a serious injury, not even a sore arm," he said. "It's remarkable. I only hope we're in the same condition going into the regular season."

Play Seen Death Cause

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Summit County deputies believe a game of make believe killed nine-year-old Jim Wilson Friday night. The boy, a clothesline knotted around his neck, was found hanging from a rafter in the basement of his Copley Township home. His father, David, discovered the body. Deputies said the boy, alone in the basement, probably was playing the part of a hanged man when he tumbled off a chair and strangled.

Spartans Nail Lead In Big 10 Swim Classic

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—A record - busting tear by Tony Tashnick that included 2 new America times helped jump Michigan far in the front today in the 49th annual Big Ten swimming championships.

Michigan had 80 points with nine finals and seven to go this afternoon. The defending champion Wolverines were certain to top the current point high of 129 by Ohio State in the 1951 conference champhionships.

Ohio State, mostly because of a monopoly on the diving, was second with 40 points. Indians was third with 36 and Michigan State fourth with 29. Other point totals: Iowa 19, Illinois and Wisconsin 7 and Minnesota 2. Northwestern and Purdue were shut out.

Tashnick won the first individual event of Friday night's finals—the 200-yard butterfly — and the last—the 200-yard individual medley.

His butterfly time was 2:02.2, bettering the American mark of 2:03.8 by William Yorzyk of the New Haven Swim Club in 1956.

Hid medley time of 2:06.5 clipped three-tenths off his afternoon's qualifying time of 2:06.8. This in turn bettered the former American mark of 2:07.5 by Al Wiggins of Ohio State in 1957. Both of his winning times also were new NCAA and Big Ten records.

Ohio State had a monopoly on the one-meter diving. Sam Hall was the winner with 488.5 points and Ron O'Brien was second with 485.45. Joseph Gerlach of Michigan finished third with 463.35.

Most one - sided series in the National League last season was the one between Milwaukee and Cincinnati. The Braves beat the Redlegs 17 times in 22 games.

Redlegs Start 'Final Exams' For Hopefuls

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Final exams start today for ambitious rookies, aging veterans and other uncertain candidates for steady jobs with Cincinnati's Reds.

It's the first exhibition game of spring training, with the Chicago's White Sox furnishing the opposition.

And manager Mayo Smith, who must decide who made the grade, admits the task can be baffling.

He said Friday, "We'll have to wait until we play a dozen or so exhibition games and even then we may go wrong."

The lineup in today's game gives an idea of the men Smith must study.

Jim O'Toole, 20-game winner with Nashville last year, opens on the mound for three innings. Ted Weiand, still a rookie at age 25, will pitch the middle innings and Tom Acker, who was 4-3 with Cincinnati last season, is slated to finish up.

Johnny Powers, a throw-in player in a deal with Pittsburgh, has shown unusual talent for slugging here at spring training and will start in left field. The center field berth goes to Vada Pinson, the speedy Californian who went to Seattle last season for more seasoning. Buddy Gilbert, whose hitting ran hot and cold for Nashville last year, holds down right field.

Dutch Dotterer, a capable catcher but no great shakes at hitting, will start behind the plate.

The rest of the Reds' starters are regulars: second baseman Johnny Temple, shortstop Roy McMillan, first sacker Frank Robinson and third baseman Frank Thomas, a slugger acquired in a deal with Pittsburgh.

O'Brien-Long Duel May Bring Shot Record

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The world shotput record was endangered today as champion Parry O'Brien and challenger Dallas Long, freshman at the University of Southern California, competed in the same meet.

The two were feature—O'Brien in the open division and Long in the collegiate — at the Southern Pacific AAU track and field meet at East Los Angeles Junior College.

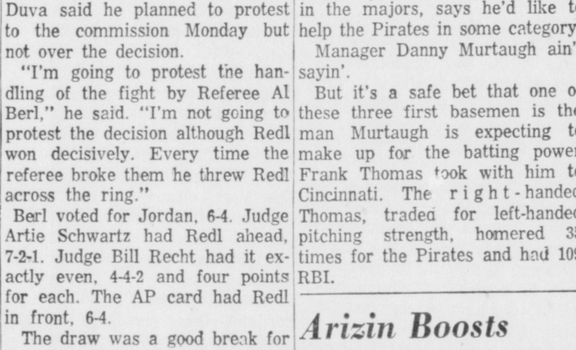

A week ago Long, from Phoenix, Ariz., electrified spectators — and O'Brien—with a throw measured unofficially at 63 feet 4 inches.

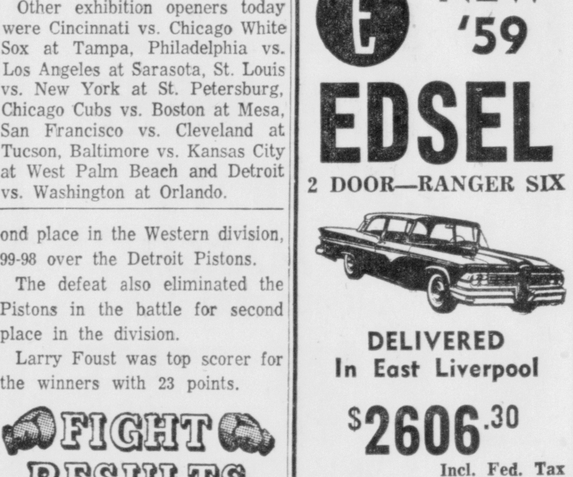

O'Brien quickly changed into a track suit and got off a put of 64 feet and better.

Neither could be considered as a record because the terrain sloped at the point of landing. O'Brien holds the accepted world mark of 63 feet 2 inches.

Teenage Beauty Charged In Las Vegas Bank Theft

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A bold, teen-age beauty, wrestled off a bus in the middle of the desert, has been charged with robbing a Las Vegas bank of $1,761.

The FBI said Ida Belle Ingram, 19, blonde and belligerent, is the youngest bank robber they've had to deal with. Certainly, she's the prettiest.

The girl, a former bank teller in Washington, D.C., drew a trail of admiring glances as she strode into a downtown Las Vegas bank Friday. So when teller Mary Herring, 21, announced moments later that she had been robbed, police had numerous descriptions to go by.

"A beautiful champagne blonde, really a knockout," was the way Miss Herring described the girl who had handed her a note demanding $8,000 and told the teller she was covered by a gun.

"A gorgeous girl," said nightclub singer Shirley Scott, in the bank at the time.

"White, American female, champagne blonde, 5 feet 6, extremely good looking," said the police broadcast.

Alert detectives found that Miss Ingram had taken a cab to the bank, had it wait for her and then sped in the cab to the bus depot. The cabbie remembered clearly, because she was so pretty. And for the same reason, a ticket seller remembered she took a bus to Reno.

The bus was 50 miles out along the lonely desert road to Reno when Dept. Sheriff Clark Olson spotted it, flagged it down, and stepped aboard. He went up and down the aisle looking for "an extremely pretty girl."

When he came to Miss Ingram, he didn't say a word. He took one look and slapped handcuffs on her.

The girl shrieked, swore and battled the deputy all the way as he dragged her out of the bus and put her in his patrol car. Olson opened her purse and said he found the $1,761, with only $2.20 in addition.

She refused to answer questions. But the FBI said papers in her purse revealed she was from Roanoke, Va.

She was arraigned on a charge of bank robbery and held in lieu of $10,000 bail.

Woman Fined For Numbers

Police Squad Raids House In East End

An East End woman was fined $300 and costs today in Municipal Court for selling numbers after a four-man police squad headed by Chief Americo Radeschi confiscated a quantity of slips in a raid Friday afternoon on her home.

Lucille Prince, 30, of 473 Mulberry St., pleaded guilty to the charge, filed by Chief Americo Radeschi, when arraigned before Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw, who warned her a second offense could result in a penitentiary term. She had posted $300 bond for her appearance today.

The formal charge alleged she "unlawfully did establish, promote and carry on as a 'vendor' for, or on account of, a certain scheme of chance known as 'policy' or 'numbers game'."

Following the court hearing, the chief said additional arrests will be made if numbers writing continues. Two men were arrested on similar offenses last year.

Using a search warrant, Radeschi, Capt. R. H. Pyle and Patrolman F. K. Heddleston and Thomas A. Walker entered the home about 2 p. m. The chief said numbers' slips were found in virtually every room.

The only other person in the home was her father, Arthur Prince, who was arrested on a similar charge in May 1956.

Municipal Court records show he was fined $100 and costs on a charge of "selling tickets of chance."

Cunningham's Trial Slated

Remainder Of Police Cases Wait Appeals

Selection of a jury is slated Monday in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon for the postponed trial of Ira Cunningham, former city officer charged with attempting to bribe a prospective juror.

Cunningham, convicted in November of a burglary of the Burbick Hardware, was indicted shortly after the trial for attempting to bribe a city man who has been called as a juror but who did not serve on the panel.

The bribe trial was to have been held this week but Judge Joel H. Sharp granted a continuance when Atty. Hugo Alexander, defense counsel, said he was ill with bronchitis and unable to speak above a whisper.

At a hearing Friday afternoon, Judge Sharp continued the remaining police cases pending the decision of Court of Appeals on a motion to quash.

The appellate court Tuesday took the cases under advisement.

The defense moved for quashing of the indictments, because they had not been heard in the three terms of court following indistment, but Common Pleas Court refused and the ex-officers appealed.

Prosecutor G. William Brokaw agreed that the appeals decision would have a bearing on the cases and Judge Sharp ruled they should be continued until the ruling is received from the higher court.

Also attending the hearing was Atty. Sam Fekett of Youngstown, defense counsel.

Children Of The Bible

SOLOMON

"And Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of David his father . . ."

—I Kings 3:3

Solomon, whose name meant "Peace of the Lord," was the son of David and Bathsheba.

As a child he was very devout, and spent many attentive hours listening to the word of God, and worshipping in the temple.

In the Book of Proverbs, which he wrote when he became a man, he said that "By his inclinations, a child is known."

The boy Solomon's inclinations were always clear. While he was still a youth, God appeared to him in a dream and offered him a choice among wisdom, wealth and power.

Without hesitation, Solomon chose wisdom. God was pleased at this. He told him:

"Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies . . . lo, I have given thee a wise and understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee."

God then told him that he would also give him riches and honor. And this he did.

Solomon's father David, who all his life dreamed of building a magnificent temple, had hoped that his son Absalom would accomplish the task. But Absalom brought only grief to the king.

It was Solomon who, even as his brother Absalom, listened to his father describe in glowing terms his plans for the temple, finally built the great edifice.

It was Solomon, too, who listened enspelled when his father sometimes sang again the beautiful songs of his own youth as a shepherd boy in the quiet hills of Judea.

Stretched upon a flower-covered terrace at dusk, young Solomon never tired of the psalms, though he knew they were sung as much to his mother Bathsheba as to him. And always, as his father laid aside the harp, he begged for "just one more."

One night David sang a new song. It was a prayer for wisdom, justice and glory. "Give the king thy judgments, O God," it began. And it called upon Jehovah to make him "as a rich cornfield in a land upon the top of the mountains. May his fruit rustle like Lebanon; and may they blossom out of the city like the grass of the earth. May his name endure forever."

"Is it a song about you, father?" asked Solomon.

"No, son," David answered. "It is the Psalm of Solomon."

take his own life late Thursday night.

He admitted loading six shells in the pump-type gun, firing two shots into his wife, who was a taxi driver, then attempting to take his own life.

Police said he missed with the first two volleys, but succeeded in wounding himself with the third.

A cororner's jury ruled Friday that the victim had died of a gunshot wound in the head.

Police added that the shooting climaxed a domestic quarrel between the couple over her alleged attentions to other men. Mrs. Cunningham was discovered dead in a bedroom by a neighbor Friday morning who checked to see why she hadn't showed up for work for the Weir-Cove Cab Co., where she had been employed for the last three years. The husband was found unconscious in the kitchen.

The case will go the Weirton Municipal Court when Cunningham recovers from his wounds, and he will be held for the April Grand Jury, according to the prosecutor.

An inquest into the murder will be held Monday at 8 p. m. in the Weirton City Building.

The coroner's jury viewed the body yesterday in the formality of determining that a death had occurred.

Young Driver Unhurt When Truck Wrecks

A 16-year-old driver escaped injury Friday afternoon when his delivery truck was forced off a road and slid down an embankment, damaging fence posts and trees at a home, police reported.

Marion Lee Perkins of Westfield Rd. told police he was driving the City Market truck owned by Harold Harris west on Haywood St. when another car forced him off the road.

The truck slid down the embankment and damaged two fence posts and skinned two trees at the home of Robert Saling, 243 Haywood St., he told police.

The cab and windshield of the truck were damaged, officers said.

In a skidding accident at 11:47 p. m. yesterday on Lincoln Ave., a southbound car driven by Keith L. Clark, 1206 Avondale St., slid into a northbound car operated by Robert James Davis, 20, of 336 Norton St., police said.

Clark was driving a car owned by Charles L. Clark, 2144 Harvey Ave., police said.

Man Suffers Injury In Fracas With Son

A 53-year-old man was treated at City Hospital Friday night for a head laceration which police said apparently was received in an argument with his son.

Officers said seven stitches were required to close the wound in the head of Lawrence B. Mathes, 603 E. 3rd St.

Patrolman K. H. Mooney was called to the home about 6:30 p. m. yesterday on a report a man had been hit on the head with a wrench. He said Mathes told him he was hit by his son but he refused to point out the son at the house.

Woman Fined For Numbers

Police Squad Raids House In East End

An East End woman was fined $300 and costs today in Municipal Court for selling numbers after a four-man police squad headed by Chief Americo Radeschi confiscated a quantity of slips in a raid Friday afternoon on her home.

Lucille Prince, 30, of 473 Mulberry St., pleaded guilty to the charge, filed by Chief Americo Radeschi, when arraigned before Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw, who warned her a second offense could result in a penitentiary term. She had posted $300 bond for her appearance today.

The formal charge alleged she "unlawfully did establish, promote and carry on as a 'vendor' for, or on account of, a certain scheme of chance known as 'policy' or 'numbers game'."

Following the court hearing, the chief said additional arrests will be made if numbers writing continues. Two men were arrested on similar offenses last year.

Using a search warrant, Radeschi, Capt. R. H. Pyle and Patrolman F. K. Heddleston and Thomas A. Walker entered the home about 2 p. m. The chief said numbers' slips were found in virtually every room.

The only other person in the home was her father, Arthur Prince, who was arrested on a similar charge in May 1956.

Municipal Court records show he was fined $100 and costs on a charge of "selling tickets of chance."

Cunningham's Trial Slated

Remainder Of Police Cases Wait Appeals

Selection of a jury is slated Monday in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon for the postponed trial of Ira Cunningham, former city officer charged with attempting to bribe a prospective juror.

Cunningham, convicted in November of a burglary of the Burbick Hardware, was indicted shortly after the trial for attempting to bribe a city man who has been called as a juror but who did not serve on the panel.

The bribe trial was to have been held this week but Judge Joel H. Sharp granted a continuance when Atty. Hugo Alexander, defense counsel, said he was ill with bronchitis and unable to speak above a whisper.

At a hearing Friday afternoon, Judge Sharp continued the remaining police cases pending the decision of Court of Appeals on a motion to quash.

The appellate court Tuesday took the cases under advisement.

The defense moved for quashing of the indictments, because they had not been heard in the three terms of court following indistment, but Common Pleas Court refused and the ex-officers appealed.

Prosecutor G. William Brokaw agreed that the appeals decision would have a bearing on the cases and Judge Sharp ruled they should be continued until the ruling is received from the higher court.

Also attending the hearing was Atty. Sam Fekett of Youngstown, defense counsel.

Firemen Among 4 Treated For Injuries

Four men, including a city fireman, injured while working were treated Friday at City Hospital.

Fireman D. James Hays of Globe St. received contusions of the chest when a ladder slipped from beneath him while he was on a call Friday morning.

Robert Dennis, 22, of Calcutta suffered a foot injury when a sewer pipe fell on him at work at the American Vitrified Products Co. yesterday.

Orland Wollam of Ephriam St. suffered an eye injury while working at the Globe Brick Co. shortly before noon yesterday.

Rufus Cline of Rogers R. D. 1 lacerated a finger while working on a car motor at home Friday afternoon.

Maple Festival Set

CHARDON, Ohio (AP) — It's time again for Geauga County's annual maple festival. Albert Ammon of 3rd St., Wellsville, entered City Hospital Tuesday for surgery.

Billy Burnside, son of the Rev. and Mrs. B. H. Burnside of Hooksstown, is a patient at City Hospital.

William Wolfe of Midland was admitted Friday at Rochester General Hospital. Discharged were Stanley Bonham and Miss Amelia Vujakla, both of Midland, and Mrs. Carmela Toplak of Smiths Ferry.

Jack Hanlon of Canton, a former Wellsville resident, has returned home from Aultman Hospital at Canton, where he was under observation.

Children Of The Bible

SOLOMON

"And Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of David his father . . ."

—I Kings 3:3

Solomon, whose name meant "Peace of the Lord," was the son of David and Bathsheba.

As a child he was very devout, and spent many attentive hours listening to the word of God, and worshipping in the temple.

In the Book of Proverbs, which he wrote when he became a man, he said that "By his inclinations, a child is known."

The boy Solomon's inclinations were always clear. While he was still a youth, God appeared to him in a dream and offered him a choice among wisdom, wealth and power.

Without hesitation, Solomon chose wisdom. God was pleased at this. He told him:

"Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies . . . lo, I have given thee a wise and understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee."

God then told him that he would also give him riches and honor. And this he did.

Solomon's father David, who all his life dreamed of building a magnificent temple, had hoped that his son Absalom would accomplish the task. But Absalom brought only grief to the king.

It was Solomon who, even as his brother Absalom, listened to his father describe in glowing terms his plans for the temple, finally built the great edifice.

It was Solomon, too, who listened enspelled when his father sometimes sang again the beautiful songs of his own youth as a shepherd boy in the quiet hills of Judea.

Stretched upon a flower-covered terrace at dusk, young Solomon never tired of the psalms, though he knew they were sung as much to his mother Bathsheba as to him. And always, as his father laid aside the harp, he begged for "just one more."

One night David sang a new song. It was a prayer for wisdom, justice and glory. "Give the king thy judgments, O God," it began. And it called upon Jehovah to make him "as a rich cornfield in a land upon the top of the mountains. May his fruit rustle like Lebanon; and may they blossom out of the city like the grass of the earth. May his name endure forever."

"Is it a song about you, father?" asked Solomon.

"No, son," David answered. "It is the Psalm of Solomon."

Weirton

take his own life late Thursday night.

He admitted loading six shells in the pump-type gun, firing two shots into his wife, who was a taxi driver, then attempting to take his own life.

Police said he missed with the first two volleys, but succeeded in wounding himself with the third.

A cororner's jury ruled Friday that the victim had died of a gunshot wound in the head.

Police added that the shooting climaxed a domestic quarrel between the couple over her alleged attentions to other men. Mrs. Cunningham was discovered dead in a bedroom by a neighbor Friday morning who checked to see why she hadn't showed up for work for the Weir-Cove Cab Co., where she had been employed for the last three years. The husband was found unconscious in the kitchen.

The case will go the Weirton Municipal Court when Cunningham recovers from his wounds, and he will be held for the April Grand Jury, according to the prosecutor.

An inquest into the murder will be held Monday at 8 p. m. in the Weirton City Building.

The coroner's jury viewed the body yesterday in the formality of determining that a death had occurred.

Young Driver Unhurt When Truck Wrecks

A 16-year-old driver escaped injury Friday afternoon when his delivery truck was forced off a road and slid down an embankment, damaging fence posts and trees at a home, police reported.

Marion Lee Perkins of Westfield Rd. told police he was driving the City Market truck owned by Harold Harris west on Haywood St. when another car forced him off the road.

The truck slid down the embankment and damaged two fence posts and skinned two trees at the home of Robert Saling, 243 Haywood St., he told police.

The cab and windshield of the truck were damaged, officers said.

In a skidding accident at 11:47 p. m. yesterday on Lincoln Ave., a southbound car driven by Keith L. Clark, 1206 Avondale St., slid into a northbound car operated by Robert James Davis, 20, of 336 Norton St., police said.

Clark was driving a car owned by Charles L. Clark, 2144 Harvey Ave., police said.

Man Suffers Injury In Fracas With Son

A 53-year-old man was treated at City Hospital Friday night for a head laceration which police said apparently was received in an argument with his son.

Officers said seven stitches were required to close the wound in the head of Lawrence B. Mathes, 603 E. 3rd St.

Patrolman K. H. Mooney was called to the home about 6:30 p. m. yesterday on a report a man had been hit on the head with a wrench. He said Mathes told him he was hit by his son but he refused to point out the son at the house.

Court Income Boosted $369

February's Revenue Pays $3,861 To City

Continuing an upturn that started in January, Municipal Court revenue in February totaled $4,427, of which $3,861 was turned over to the city treasury, Clerk Harold L. Powell said today in his monthly report.

Last month's revenue was up $369 from the $4,158 reported in January, while the city's share increased $12 over the $3,849 it was paid for the preceding month. The court's overall income was $3,560 in December, including $3,092 paid to the city treasury. December's slump was attributed to the holiday season.

The overall amount handled by the court fell off $1,463 last month. The court handled $8,252 in February, including $4,104 in the civil branch and $4,148 in the criminal branch. The overall amount handled in January was $9,655, including $5,080 in the civil branch and $4,575 in the criminal branch.

The money includes receipts from trusteeships and judgments in civil actions — which are passed onto plaintiffs and creditors—and refunded bonds in criminal cases.

The city's share of the revenue last month was made up of $535 in costs from civil actions and $3,326 in fines, costs and forfeitures in criminal cases. In addition to the amount paid the city, the court turned over $203 to the state treasury as its share of fines resulting from Highway Patrol cases, $287 to the county — also from state cases — and $75 to the Law Library Association.

A breakdown of cases showed: 69 civil cases filed last month, 32 disposed of and 202 left pending; 85 city criminal cases filed, 84 disposed of and 15 left pending, and 36 state criminal cases filed, 35 disposed of and 71 left pending.

Ex-Sen. Guffey Of Pennsylvania Dies At Age 88

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Sen. Joseph F. Guffey of Pennsylvania, a Democratic stalwart during the New Deal era, died Friday night of a heart ailment at the age of 88.

Guffey, a power in Pennsylvania politics for decades, had lived in Washington since losing his Senate seat in the 1946 Republican landslide.

He died a few hours after being taken to Doctors Hospital. Relatives said he had been having heart trouble for the past two weeks.

Guffey, who made politics both a hobby and a career, never married. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Emma Guffey Miller, and four nephews.

Born near Pittsburgh on Dec. 29, 1870, Guffey began his rise to political prominence in 1912 when he took a gamble that paid off.

Breaking with his uncle, Col. J. M. Guffey, veteran Pennsylvania Democratic leader, Guffey backed his former Princeton University professor, Woodrow Wilson for the presidency.

Alabama Cites Victory Over Civil Rights Unit

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Alabama officials claimed a victory in their running battle with the U.S. Civil Rights Commission after a government suit was dismissed in federal court.

But the Justice Department announced that Friday's ruling by U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. will be appealed.

The judge threw out the government's suit seeking an injunction to prevent denial of Negro voting rights in Macon County where Negroes outnumber white persons by nearly 6-1. The Civil Rights Commission recently investigated voter registration in this county.

Voter Signup Set March 19

Registration Slated For Midland District

Voters of Midland and Glasglow Boroughs, and Industry and Ohio Townships may register at the Midland Borough Building from 1 to 9 p. m. March 19 to participate in the primaries May 18.

William B. Smith, Bureau of Elections director, said it will be for new voters or for those who wish to change their address or party registration. Deadline for the signup at the Beaver registration office is March 30.

To qualify, a person must be a citizen 21 years of age by May 20, have lived in Pennsylvania at least a year; or if he moved from the state and returned, he must have been a resident at least six months, and must have resided in his precinct at least 60 days.

Smith meanwhile urged that candidates circulating petitions should have them completely filled out and notarized before attempting to file them. He said petitions should be filed as soon as possible to avoid delays at deadline March 16. Only completed petitions will be accepted if there is any rush on the final day.

Smith reported 800 to 900 petitions have been issued for county offices and several thousand to those seeking borough and township offices.

A list of offices for the primary ballot was completed late Friday afternoon and the bureau has until Tuesday to publish them.

Ballots for servicemen, which must be requested, will be mailed no later than April 24.

High Winds Topple Radio Station Towers

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) —Radio station WTLG hopes to be back in operation today after Friday's high winds leveled their twin 300-foot towers.

Howard Ward, station owner, said damage would be about $25,000. Two years ago a similar accident happened.

Ward said he will again use a balloon to raise a temporary antenna. The last time he tried this, Ward remarked, someone used homemade anti-aircraft to shoot down the balloon.

Persons in the Arctic regions have not been able to converse with ease when more than a mile apart. This is due to the cold, dense air and the smooth surface of the ice, both favoring the transmission of sound.

Youth In Theft Series Placed On Probation

A 17-year-old city youth, who admitted taking part with an older youth in 11 area burglaries, was placed on probation at a hearing before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin Friday.

Gary Risher, 19, of 451 Ray St., who was bound over to the Columbiana County Grand Jury for entering the Hillberry Restaurant of Route 30 near Lisbon, was apprehended with the younger defendant in a car on Route 30 south of Lisbon Feb. 12 by sheriff's deputies.

Questioned concerning a gun and knife in the car, the pair admitted entering service stations, homes of veterans posts and stores in Columbiana, Hancock, Beaver and Jefferson Counties.

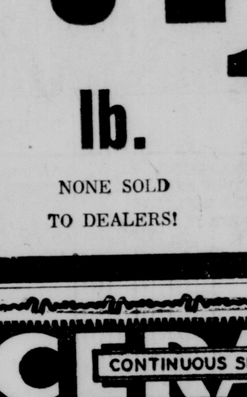

Judge Tobin said the youth will be under the supervision of an adult probation officer. The boy formerly resided at Niles.

Court Income Boosted $369

February's Revenue Pays $3,861 To City

Continuing an upturn that started in January, Municipal Court revenue in February totaled $4,427, of which $3,861 was turned over to the city treasury, Clerk Harold L. Powell said today in his monthly report.

Last month's revenue was up $369 from the $4,158 reported in January, while the city's share increased $12 over the $3,849 it was paid for the preceding month. The court's overall income was $3,560 in December, including $3,092 paid to the city treasury. December's slump was attributed to the holiday season.

The overall amount handled by the court fell off $1,463 last month. The court handled $8,252 in February, including $4,104 in the civil branch and $4,148 in the criminal branch. The overall amount handled in January was $9,655, including $5,080 in the civil branch and $4,575 in the criminal branch.

The money includes receipts from trusteeships and judgments in civil actions — which are passed onto plaintiffs and creditors—and refunded bonds in criminal cases.

The city's share of the revenue last month was made up of $535 in costs from civil actions and $3,326 in fines, costs and forfeitures in criminal cases. In addition to the amount paid the city, the court turned over $203 to the state treasury as its share of fines resulting from Highway Patrol cases, $287 to the county — also from state cases — and $75 to the Law Library Association.

A breakdown of cases showed: 69 civil cases filed last month, 32 disposed of and 202 left pending; 85 city criminal cases filed, 84 disposed of and 15 left pending, and 36 state criminal cases filed, 35 disposed of and 71 left pending.

Ex-Sen. Guffey Of Pennsylvania Dies At Age 88

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Sen. Joseph F. Guffey of Pennsylvania, a Democratic stalwart during the New Deal era, died Friday night of a heart ailment at the age of 88.

Guffey, a power in Pennsylvania politics for decades, had lived in Washington since losing his Senate seat in the 1946 Republican landslide.

He died a few hours after being taken to Doctors Hospital. Relatives said he had been having heart trouble for the past two weeks.

Guffey, who made politics both a hobby and a career, never married. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Emma Guffey Miller, and four nephews.

Born near Pittsburgh on Dec. 29, 1870, Guffey began his rise to political prominence in 1912 when he took a gamble that paid off.

Breaking with his uncle, Col. J. M. Guffey, veteran Pennsylvania Democratic leader, Guffey backed his former Princeton University professor, Woodrow Wilson for the presidency.

Observance Set For Wellsville's Girl Scout Units

Wellsville Girl Scouts will celebrate "Girl Scout Sunday," marking the 47th national anniversary, by attending church and participating in the area meeting tomorrow, Mrs. George Elliott, neighborhood chairman, announced.

Catholic Girl Scouts will meet at 9 a. m. at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church with Mrs. Mary Kozora in charge of Troop 52. Troops 65, 76, 40 and 38 will meet at the Second Presbyterian Church at 10:30 a. m. Alabama Cites Victory Over Civil Rights Unit

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Alabama officials claimed a victory in their running battle with the U.S. Civil Rights Commission after a government suit was dismissed in federal court.

But the Justice Department announced that Friday's ruling by U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. will be appealed.

The judge threw out the government's suit seeking an injunction to prevent denial of Negro voting rights in Macon County where Negroes outnumber white persons by nearly 6-1. The Civil Rights Commission recently investigated voter registration in this county.

Voter Signup Set March 19

Registration Slated For Midland District

Voters of Midland and Glasglow Boroughs, and Industry and Ohio Townships may register at the Midland Borough Building from 1 to 9 p. m. March 19 to participate in the primaries May 18.

William B. Smith, Bureau of Elections director, said it will be for new voters or for those who wish to change their address or party registration. Deadline for the signup at the Beaver registration office is March 30.

To qualify, a person must be a citizen 21 years of age by May 20, have lived in Pennsylvania at least a year; or if he moved from the state and returned, he must have been a resident at least six months, and must have resided in his precinct at least 60 days.

Smith meanwhile urged that candidates circulating petitions should have them completely filled out and notarized before attempting to file them. He said petitions should be filed as soon as possible to avoid delays at deadline March 16. Only completed petitions will be accepted if there is any rush on the final day.

Smith reported 800 to 900 petitions have been issued for county offices and several thousand to those seeking borough and township offices.

A list of offices for the primary ballot was completed late Friday afternoon and the bureau has until Tuesday to publish them.

Ballots for servicemen, which must be requested, will be mailed no later than April 24.

High Winds Topple Radio Station Towers

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) —Radio station WTLG hopes to be back in operation today after Friday's high winds leveled their twin 300-foot towers.

Howard Ward, station owner, said damage would be about $25,000. Two years ago a similar accident happened.

Ward said he will again use a balloon to raise a temporary antenna. The last time he tried this, Ward remarked, someone used homemade anti-aircraft to shoot down the balloon.

Persons in the Arctic regions have not been able to converse with ease when more than a mile apart. This is due to the cold, dense air and the smooth surface of the ice, both favoring the transmission of sound.

Youth In Theft Series Placed On Probation

A 17-year-old city youth, who admitted taking part with an older youth in 11 area burglaries, was placed on probation at a hearing before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin Friday.

Gary Risher, 19, of 451 Ray St., who was bound over to the Columbiana County Grand Jury for entering the Hillberry Restaurant of Route 30 near Lisbon, was apprehended with the younger defendant in a car on Route 30 south of Lisbon Feb. 12 by sheriff's deputies.

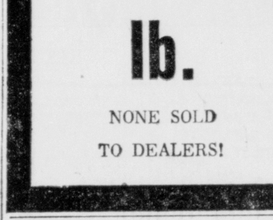

Questioned concerning a gun and knife in the car, the pair admitted entering service stations, homes of veterans posts and stores in Columbiana, Hancock, Beaver and Jefferson Counties.

Judge Tobin said the youth will be under the supervision of an adult probation officer. The boy formerly resided at Niles.
